

President and Vice President	Vote Totals:
Quinten Proctor & Paris Lawson	636

College Representative Seats
Seidman College of Business (3 representatives)
Representing 3,629 students:	Vote Totals:
Antonio Green	128
Anna Richards	33
Aurora Vaidya	13

College of Education & Community Innovation (1 representative)
Representing 1,226 students:	Vote Totals:
Genna E Wright	47

College of Health Professions (1 representative)
Representing 1,422 students:	Vote Totals:
Lex Ford	55

Interdisciplinary Studies (1 representative)
Representing 543 students:	Vote Totals:
Morgan Bernardi*	13 (write-in)

College of Liberal Arts and Sciences (7 representatives)
Representing 7,979 students:	Vote Totals:
Alec Palumbo	77
Ty T. Vanlerberghe	72
Landon Bartlett	68
Braylond T. Price	67
Sophie Gemmen	60
Karen L. Theakston	45
Cera C. McDonough	38

Kirkhof College of Nursing (1 representative)
Representing 1,269 students:	Vote Totals:
Riley Gessler	22

Padnos College of Engineering & Computing (1 representative)
Representing 1,757 students:	Vote Totals:
Dip Luitel	29

At-Large Representatives (17)

Representing 17,827 students across all colleges:

Vote Totals:

Lizette M. Solorio	291
Nancy Hoogwerf	248
Annah Stang	234
Olivia Robach	224
Zuriel Johnson	215
Lukas M. Hartley	195
Richard T. Dolnik	164
Chance Carroll	125
Evan Jackson	120
Brin DeVries	114
Anna Theune	114
Alee Strand	109
Peyton Reinas	20 (write-in)

Per GVSU Student Senate bylaws, the following At-Large Seats are filled by unselected candidates from the college representation ballot:

Vote Totals:

Thomas Johnstone	35
Michael J. Eshleman	34
Evan VanDyke	33
Samuel J Schwallier	29

Notes

*The minimum amount of write-in votes needed to qualify was 10, and Morgan Bernadi received 13 write-in votes which was the highest amount of write-in votes for the Brooks College seat.

The minimum amount of write-in votes needed to qualify was 10, and Peyton Reinas received 20 write-in votes which was the highest amount of write-in votes for an At-Large Seat.

The tie between Dip Luitel and Samuel J Schwallier for the college representative seat of Padnos College of Engineering and Computing was determined by a coin toss. Dip Luitel won the coin toss but because there is an open At-Large Seat, Samuel J Schwallier is eligible to fill this seat.

Write-ins: There were a total of 19 write-in candidates, however, none of these students (except Peyton Reinas and Morgan Bernadi) received the minimum of 10 write-in votes to qualify for a seat.

Designated Representatives - TBD

Please note that the following representatives are not filled through the annual ballot election per GVSU Student Senate bylaws.

First Year Student (1)

First Year Student (2)

First Year Student (3)

First Year Student (4)

Graduate Student Representative

International Student Representative

Information based on Winter 2024 Undergraduate Enrollment (College of Major) via Office of Institutional Analysis Report published: 03/28/24