Dear Graduate Students,

On behalf of The Graduate School and all of our graduate faculty and staff, I welcome you to Grand Valley State University!

We are so pleased that you have chosen to join our graduate education community. Since you have already completed at least one college degree, you probably have a good understanding of how colleges and universities work. Despite that, you may find yourself wondering how GVSU addresses many issues at the graduate education level. The Graduate School is available to assist you in finding the information you need easily and in a timely manner.

To help get your experience at GVSU off to a great start, we encourage you to use this Graduate Student Guidebook. Your predecessors, by letting us know about their needs, enabled us to pinpoint some of the key facts, policies, and helpful suggestions that you can use to enhance the quality of your graduate education experience. Among the items included in this Guidebook are facts about GVSU, an office directory, where to turn for advice or guidance, some of your program options, and when you should act on matters related to your graduate program.

The Guidebook supplements the standard university resources available to you, such as the University Catalog, Schedule of Classes, and websites. Throughout the Guidebook, we reference websites where the most current and detailed information can be found.

All information in this guidebook has been reviewed and approved by the appropriate individuals and departments. The Guidebook is updated each academic year by graduate students and The Graduate School staff. It is designed for graduate students, with the most up-to-date information that will help you have an outstanding educational experience at GVSU.

Since the Guidebook is for you, we are open to your suggestions about other items that should be included, or areas where there is a need for clarification. Please email suggestions to gradschool@gvsu.edu.

May your time at Grand Valley State University enable you to reach both your academic and professional goals. We encourage you to use this Guidebook to facilitate a smooth transition to and navigation through your graduate education at GVSU. Let us know if we can be of any further assistance to you.

Wishing you success,

Jeffrey A. Potteiger
Dean of The Graduate School

Acceptance and Welcome Letters

Contact the Office of Admissions for questions
Website link
Email: admissions@gvsu.edu

At the graduate level, degree seeking admissions decisions are made by each graduate program. Your program will send you a letter of acceptance, which formally admits you into a graduate degree program at GVSU. If you decide to pursue a different graduate program or a second one, you will need to apply separately to that particular program.

Non-degree seeking graduate students can register for courses but have not been formally admitted into a graduate program at GVSU. Please note that each graduate program has limits as to how many credits you can take as a non-degree seeking graduate student and use toward a degree. If you intend to obtain a graduate degree from GVSU, you will need to apply as a degree seeking student. See the Student Status section on page 25 for more information.

Grand Valley sends all admitted degree seeking graduate students a formal acceptance letter with important graduate information. Non-degree seeking graduate students receive a welcome letter. New students will also receive a letter from Information Technology containing your G number and your Network (Outlook, Wireless, Lab) username and password. Please make note of your G-number as it will be needed for course registration, access to personal records, and other important services at the university. If you are already on campus and do not know your G number, please call the Records Department at 616-331-3327.

For additional details, please see the Office of the Registrar’s website. For future academic years, please visit the online catalog.

The posted refund deadlines apply to courses that meet for the specified amount of time. Classes that meet for a portion of the semester have different refund deadlines. Please contact the Office of the Registrar for more information.

You must make a payment or payment arrangements before the tuition payment deadline, or you may be dropped from your classes. If you enroll after the semester begins, you will be charged a $50 late enrollment fee.

Campus Tours

Contact the Office of Admissions to schedule

Phone: Grand Rapids: 616-331-7220
Allendale: 616-331-2025

Location:
- Grand Rapids: DeVos Center Building B, First Floor, 102B DEV
- Allendale: Student Services Building, Third Floor, 300 STU

Graduate students are always welcome to visit the Pew Campus in Grand Rapids and talk with staff in Admissions. Tours of the DeVos Center are also available by appointment only. The Office of Admissions in Grand Rapids is open Monday through Thursday from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. and on Fridays from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. from September through April. Summer hours are from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. We do ask that you first make an appointment with the Office of Admissions by calling the numbers listed above.

If you would like to explore our main campus in Allendale, a walking tour is available, lasting one-hour in length. Daily tours are available by appointment at 10 a.m., 11 a.m., 12 p.m., 1 p.m., and 2 p.m. Monday through Friday. Tours are led by current undergraduate students and depart from the third floor of the Student Services Building.
MyBanner and G-Number

All student services interaction requires access via the system called MyBanner. You will use MyBanner to register for classes, change your address, view or request your transcript, manage your student account, and reset passwords.

Your MyBanner User ID is commonly known as your G-number and is your GVSU Student Number. To access MyBanner, you will need your G-number and Personal Identification Number (PIN). The PIN defaults to your birth date formatted as mmddyy, where leading zeroes are required and the year is the last two digits of the year. For example, if your birthday were August 5 of 1970, your default PIN would be 080570. Do not use slashes or dashes.

From Grand Valley's homepage you can access MyBanner by going to the “Quick Links” tab and click “MyBanner.” The first time you login with your default PIN, you will need to self-select a new PIN (six to ten characters including numbers and letters) and set a security question.

If you have forgotten your PIN, on the MyBanner login page input your G-number in the “User ID” box and click “Forgot PIN?” A security question will appear. Answer the question then reset your six-digit PIN. If you use the incorrect PIN number three times, your account will be locked. Contact the Records Department at 616-331-3327 to have it unlocked.

Registration

The Office of the Registrar has created a number of informational resources to assist students with registration. For assistance with searching for classes, registering, and trouble-shooting any registration issues, follow this link. A list of frequently asked questions is also available here.

General Notes

Registration may be done online through the MyBanner system, via phone at 616-331-3327, or in person at any Grand Valley campus. Grand Valley encourages students to register online. The following pages contain written instructions to register online and instructions can also be accessed through the web site above. Before registering, you will probably want to review the annual class schedule and special course charges.

The class schedule can also be found through the “Search for Classes” feature in MyBanner. Graduate tuition at GVSU is determined by your program of study for all coursework. A listing of graduate tuition rates is available here.

If you are unable to register for a course electronically through MyBanner for any reason, contact your advisor or Graduate Program Director for assistance. Your advisor will work with you to decide if you qualify to take the course and instruct you on how to request a permit in Banner.
Course Numbering
Graduate courses are divided into three levels of numbering, 500, 600, and 700. The first level of courses, the 500 - 599 level, is for first year graduate students or as prerequisites for 600 and 700 level courses. The majority of graduate classes are at the 600 - 699 level and are primarily for students admitted to graduate programs. Courses within a level are not necessarily numbered sequentially to denote a required sequence of courses or increasing difficulty. The last level, 700 – 799, is used for advanced graduate students in post-master’s and doctoral programs.

In addition, some course numbers are reserved. For example, 680 and 780 are reserved for special topics courses. These are classes that are not normally offered as part of the curriculum. Graduate research preparation courses are 690 and 790. Final project courses are usually numbered 693 and 793, and graduate thesis/dissertation courses are numbered 695 and 795. Independent study courses are numbered 699 and 799.

Syllabus of Record
For each graduate course at Grand Valley, there is a Syllabus of Record on file. This is the general syllabus for the course that was approved when the course was created or underwent a revision.

Why is this useful to you? It provides the information necessary to decide if the course content is what you want to study and is far more informative than the brief description in the Catalog. This syllabus exists so students can gain a better understanding of the content areas, objectives, and grading criteria for a course. You will need to know the course number from the Catalog to review a Syllabus of Record. Paper copies are kept by each department; please contact the department that offers the course to review the Syllabus of Record. Each professor creates their course syllabus for a specific course they are teaching using the Syllabus of Record as a guideline.

Plan of Study
Some degrees require each student to complete a Plan of Study also known as a Planned Program of Study for the degree. This may follow the program plan published in the Catalog, but many programs allow you choices that make it your own Plan of Study. When planning your program with an advisor, faculty, or staff to determine when to take courses and which courses to take, be sure you get that advice in writing so that you have a record of these decisions and recommendations. If the advice is in an email, remember to keep copies of all related emails.

Permits & Advance Permission
Some courses require students to apply for advance permission in order to register. In some cases, you will need to apply for these courses a semester in advance and receive an electronic registration override. This most often occurs with final project (693/793) and thesis (695/795) courses. Please pay attention to course prerequisites in the Catalog. Completing a Plan of Study for your degree should help alert you as to which courses have these requirements.

Prerequisites
Many courses have prerequisites. Prerequisites for a specific course are listed in the Catalog. If you do not meet the prerequisite(s) for the course, you may not be able to register for it. The computer system, myBanner, must have a record that you have taken or enrolled in all prerequisites or it will not allow you to enroll in a course. If you have transferred credits or taken a test to satisfy a prerequisite, myBanner may not recognize it. If this happens, seek assistance from your academic advisor or Graduate Program Director.
Credit/No Credit
At the graduate level, most courses are graded. A few courses, particularly upper level research, project, and thesis courses are graded as credit/no credit or pass/fail. As a graduate student, to earn credit in a credit/no credit course, your work must be at a minimum equivalent to a B-level. Graduate students are not permitted to take a class as credit/no credit if it is a graded course.

Annual Class Schedule
There is a searchable annual class schedule available online. The Annual Class Schedule for 2019-20 will be available online in March 2019. Registration begins in mid-March, be sure to register early to ensure a spot in the class you need.

University Catalog
The online catalog, as well as catalogs from previous years, are available here. The online catalog is the most current and accurate version of Grand Valley's catalog. It is updated frequently to give you the most current catalog information.

Select your desired catalog in the "scroll-down menu" found in the top right corner of any online catalog page. Versions of the online catalog are available starting in 2005.

Fees and Things that Prevent Registration

Late Registration
If you wait to enroll until after the semester has started, you will have a $50 nonrefundable late registration fee for registering during the first five days of classes. After the five day add/drop period, enrollment officially ends. To avoid this fee, you must be registered for at least one course before the first day of classes.

Class schedules may be changed during the first week of classes without penalty as long as there is room in the class you wish to take. Courses that begin after the fifth day of a semester, workshops, or other offerings without a registration process will not incur a late fee.

It is possible to enroll in a course after the add/drop period has ended under exceptional circumstances. You will need a form signed by the instructor, the department chair, and the appropriate College Dean. A $25 penalty fee will also be applied.

Overdue Library Books
There are also fees assessed for overdue books. If you fail to pay your fine or return a book, you may be unable to register for classes the following term or obtain a copy of your transcript. Remember to get a receipt when you pay your fine. The library will send you emails reminding you about upcoming book due dates, overdue books, and assessed fines.

Parking Tickets and Parking Meters
The University also writes parking tickets known as citations for $25 - $50 each for on-campus parking violations. Downtown on-campus parking includes the parking lots and the Seward Parking Ramp. The streets around the University and the meters on those streets (including those in front of Eberhard) are monitored by the City of Grand Rapids, not GVSU.

There are a limited number of metered parking areas, intended for short-term parking, within some university parking lots. The staff parking lot next to DeVos Center has some metered parking spaces.
near Burger King, the Eberhard Center staff parking lot has some metered spaces facing the street, and the Center for Health Sciences has a small amount of metered parking in the Lafayette Lot south of Michigan Ave. All on-campus meters are within parking lots. All on-campus meters are monitored by Grand Valley and enforced year-round.

Failure to pay even a small fine could prevent you from registering for classes.

Campus Maps and Building Locations

Website link

Grand Valley’s main campus is in Allendale, though many graduate students will attend classes in Grand Rapids. The Grand Rapids area is split into two campus: the Robert C. Pew Campus and the Health Campus. Maps for all campuses, including satellite locations (such as Holland, Muskegon, and Traverse City), are available here. Printed maps can be requested from the Student Assistance Center at 115C DeVos Building.

Note: there is no student parking available on the Health Campus. Please see the Transportation Information/Busing section in this Guidebook for more information on the bus system and traveling between campuses.

Many services for Grand Rapids campuses are located in the Richard C. DeVos Center building on the Pew Campus, including the Grand Rapids bookstore, Student Assistance Center, computer labs, dining options, and the Steelcase Library. Offices such as the Career Center and University Counseling Center also have space in the DeVos Center.

Building names are often abbreviated, particularly on student class schedules. To help locate classrooms, use this Building Abbreviations guide here online.

Building, Lab, and Facilities Hours

Website link

The opening and closing times of buildings and facilities on campus usually change with the academic calendar. Typically, Fall and Winter semesters will have similar schedules, and Spring/Summer semester will have a different schedule. Schedules are often changed during breaks, both breaks within and between semesters, and around final exam time.

Grand Rapids, Holland, and Muskegon building hours are usually posted by Facilities Services. Go to the website above and click on “Buildings/Parking.” From there, you can select “Building Hours” for the regularly scheduled hours for the current semester. This includes buildings, the bookstores, libraries, computer labs, engineering labs, the Student Assistance Center, the security desk, shuttle busses, and food service hours. It does not include break or exam time schedules for the bookstore, libraries, labs, busses, the Student Assistance Center, and food service.

For break and exam schedules, visit the individual Web pages:

Payments for tuition may be made in person, by mail, by phone, or online. To pay in person you may use cash, checks, or money orders only. Checks or money orders are accepted by mail. To pay by phone, 616-331-2209, you may use a Visa, MasterCard, or Discover credit card. Each credit card payment by phone or online will incur a processing charge of $20. There are two online payment options, to pay by credit card or electronic check. The electronic check system requires you to register your bank account and withdraws money from your account with no additional fee. All unpaid charges on your student account now incur a 1% late fee assessed on the past due balance each month.

To pay online, log in to MyBanner's website, then click on “Student.” On the next screen click on “Student Account,” then click on “Student Account Information.” Next, click on “View Statement, Set Up Deferment, Make a Payment”.

Two deferment plans are offered, company and regular. If your employer pays your tuition, you may set up a company deferment plan. The regular deferment plan breaks your tuition into four monthly installments. Both plans charge a $40 fee per semester. To set up a deferment plan, go to MyBanner. If you make a partial payment by the payment deadline, you will be automatically enrolled in the regular deferment plan and charged the $40 fee.

Financial Aid

Website link
Phone: 616-331-3234
Location: Allendale: Student Services Building, First Floor, 100 STU

Financial Aid is available to degree seeking graduate students during semesters when they are taking 4.5 or more credits. For most graduate students, the primary type of aid available is in the form of federal loans. Federal loans have specific eligibility requirements including being a U.S. citizen or a qualified resident alien. If you have questions regarding financial aid, you can contact the Office of Financial Aid & Scholarships at: 616-331-3234, toll-free at 800-748-0246, or at finaid@gvsu.edu.

Please see the next page for step-by-step instructions to apply for financial aid. Financial aid is still available even if the semester has already started. Please contact us for assistance.

Tip: Federal student loan payment and forgiveness programs are available - Click here for more information.

Applying for Financial Aid for Graduate Student

General requirements for federal student aid at Grand Valley State University:
1) You must be formally admitted as a degree seeking student at Grand Valley State University in order to receive financial aid. If you have registered for classes using the non-degree seeking admissions form, you are not eligible to receive financial aid.

2) Only courses that count toward your graduate program will count toward your financial aid eligibility.

3) To be considered for financial aid, you must submit the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) online.

If you have not submitted the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) for the 2018-2019 academic year, please follow these instructions:

- If you do not already have an FSA ID, you must create one at here online to electronically sign the FAFSA. If you previously created an FSA ID but have misplaced your login information, please retrieve your FSA ID username and/or password online.

- File your FAFSA online here

- If corrections are needed: Return to their website, choose “Corrections,” and log in using your FSA ID. Enter the corrections and submit.

Award Notification and Acceptance: After your aid eligibility is determined, you will be notified by the Office of Financial Aid & Scholarships that your award is available to access and accept online through MyBanner. Instructions on how to accept your aid are available online.

Federal Direct Student Loans: If you are accepting a Direct Loan for the first time as a Grand Valley student, you must also complete an online Master Promissory Note (MPN) and online Entrance Counseling. Instructions on how to complete your Direct Loan requirements are available online.

Reminder: Students are responsible for meeting the published payment deadlines to avoid having their class schedule(s) cancelled. Therefore, if your financial aid requirements have not been completed and the aid is not available to disburse prior to the payment deadline, you will need to pay your tuition to avoid having the Registrar drop you from your classes for non-payment. You may sign up for the deferment plan and pay 25% of the total amount due plus a $40.00 fee (per semester) by the payment deadline date to keep your classes. You must continue making payments until your financial aid has paid your bill.

Scholarships

Website link

There are a limited number of scholarships available to graduate students through sources at GVSU and professional organizations, as well as for students demonstrating special circumstances. There are several ways to obtain scholarships at Grand Valley.

- myScholarships Grand Valley offers 400+ endowed and departmental scholarships. The scholarship cycle opens October 1st and ends March 1st for scholarships to be applied for the following academic year.
- Outside Scholarships, Fellowships, and National Awards
Grand Valley maintains a database of scholarships available through local and national organizations. Deadlines vary depending on the scholarship and can be accessed through the year.

- Program Specific Scholarship Opportunities
  Further information on scholarships can be obtained from your college and Graduate Program Director.

Tip: Scholarship deadlines vary and may not follow the Academic Calendar deadlines
Check each scholarship for deadline information.

Graduate Assistantships
[Website link]

Graduate Assistantships (GA) serve a dual purpose: (1) they provide graduate students with part-time, paid work experience in their field of study that allows them to expand and/or apply their discipline knowledge and skills under supervision; and (2) they provide GVSU faculty and/or university staff assistance in carrying out research, special projects, or other assignments that require the advanced skills of graduate students. The activities assigned are to enhance the student’s academic experience. Although some tasks may include a clerical component, a graduate assistantship is not meant to be used to provide primarily clerical and office support to academic units.

Some graduate assistants serve in an instructional role, often in a lab or classroom. Service in an instructional role requires that the graduate student works under the direct supervision of a faculty member who has final grading responsibility for the course.

Many graduate assistants are assigned to work in their own program, e.g., a Social Work student will work in the School of Social Work. However, a number of departments will hire across disciplines when the need arises. For example, a position in the Biology department may require someone with advanced computer skills, thus a student majoring in Computer Science & Information Systems could be eligible for the assistantship in that department. Additionally, some non-academic units may have no specific major in mind when hiring a GA. Examples of non-academic units are: Athletic & Recreation Facilities Management, The Graduate School, Johnson Center for Philanthropy, and the Office of the Vice Provost for Health.

Graduate Assistantship Terms and Compensation

Most graduate assistantship appointments are made for the full academic year (Fall-Winter). Some positions may be appointed on a semester basis, while others may be extended appointments (10-month and 12-month).

Full-Time
A typical full-time assistantship requires the student to take 9 graduate credit hours per semester, and includes the following responsibilities and benefits:

- A 20-hour per week work assignment for 15 weeks per semester, corresponding to the beginning and ending of each semester as published in the university schedule
- Support from GVSU which includes:
  - A stipend of $4,000 each semester
Paid tuition, aka a tuition waiver, for 9 graduate credits per semester, unless the student is eligible for reimbursement of tuition from another source.

Half-Time
A typical half-time assistantship requires the student to take a minimum of 5 graduate credit hours per semester, and includes the following responsibilities and benefits:
- A 10-hour per week work assignment for 15 weeks per semester.
- Support from GVSU which includes:
  - A stipend of $2,000 per semester
  - Paid tuition, aka a tuition waiver, for up to 4.5 graduate credits per semester, unless the student is eligible for reimbursement of tuition from another source.

Important Notes
Stipend payments are split up through the semester so that the student receives a regular paycheck every two weeks.

Students are responsible for paying for any credits taken in excess of those covered by the tuition waiver provided by their graduate assistantship.

The tuition waiver does not cover undergraduate credit unless approved by the Dean of The Graduate School. Please contact your graduate program director or The Graduate School if you are taking an undergraduate course as part of your graduate program.

The tuition waiver covers the following for full-time GAs:
- Academic year appointment (9 months): 18 credit hours (Fall-9, Winter-9)
- Extended appointment: (10 months): 21 credit hours (Fall-9, Winter-9,and Spring/Summer-3)
- Extended appointment: (12 months): 24 credit hours (Fall-9, Winter-9,and Spring/Summer-6)

The tuition waiver covers the following for half-time GAs:
- Academic year appointment (9 months): 9 credit hours (Fall 4.5, Winter 4.5)

Occasionally, the Dean of The Graduate School may allow an exception to the tuition waiver policy. This sometimes occurs when a GA is nearing the end of their academic program or if courses that the GA needs for their degree are not offered in the upcoming semester. Requests for exceptions to the policy should be initiated by the GA’s supervisor, with verification from the GA’s program advisor that appropriate courses are unavailable. Such requests should be sent via email to The Graduate School.

Qualifications
To qualify for a graduate assistantship at GVSU, the student must:

1. Be fully admitted as a degree seeking student in a GVSU graduate program at the time of appointment. Students with conditional admissions, provisional admissions, and who are non-degree seeking are not eligible for a graduate assistantship,

2. Be in good academic standing (3.0 GPA or better)
3. Successfully maintain a minimum course load of 9 graduate credit hours per semester for a full-time GA, OR

4. Carry a minimum course load of 5 graduate credit hours per semester for a half-time GA.

Graduate Assistantship Appointment Forms
Students who accept a GA position are required to sign an appointment form ("contract"). The hiring department/unit completes the online form, which includes a brief job description, supervisor information, and the terms of the appointment. The student will receive an email with a link to log onto the system to review and sign the online GA appointment form. The student should thoroughly read and understand the terms and conditions of the appointment prior to signing. The start and end dates of the appointment typically coincide with the beginning and ending dates of the academic year or semester. However, some departments offer extended appointments, which require the student to work additional weeks. Extended appointments generally provide a higher stipend amount, which should be indicated on the form.

The hiring department is responsible for ensuring that the newly hired GA completes the required I-9 and tax withholding forms. The forms can be downloaded from the Office of Student Employment online.

New Graduate Assistant Orientation
The Graduate School sponsors a mandatory new GA orientation at the beginning of the fall and winter semesters. The purpose of the orientation is to inform GAs of their rights and responsibilities and to address policies, procedures, and potential problems that affect all GAs. Email announcements and reminders are sent to newly hired graduate assistants well before the orientation dates. New GAs who have not received notification of the orientation should contact their hiring supervisor or The Graduate School.

Handshake (formerly LakerJobs) is GVSU’s web-based service providing students and alumni access to professional jobs and internships posted by employers looking for GVSU students and alumni. The Office of Student Employment uses Handshake to post all on-campus student worker positions. Graduate students are eligible for student worker positions.

You can also use Handshake to:
- Participate in On-Campus Interviewing
- Register for career fairs (students do not need to register)
- Make your resume available to employers through Resume Books
- Have jobs automatically emailed to you with Search Agents and Job Blasts
- Get information on upcoming career events, workshops, and information sessions
- Research employers that recruit at GVSU

Graduate Assistantship Postings:
Visit the website for graduate assistantships to see the list of postings. Please note that not all graduate assistantships are posted here. Some graduate assistantships are restricted to students in a specific program or college. In general, posted graduate assistantships are available to students from multiple programs.

Tips for Finding a Graduate Assistantship
Please follow these helpful tips and strategies for locating and obtaining a Graduate Assistantship:

Speak to your faculty advisor or Graduate Program Director: Some graduate programs have assistantship positions available within their department. In this case, there may be a formal application process and deadlines that you need to follow to be considered.

Look outside of your Graduate Program: faculty or students within your program may be able to identify locations on campus where students from your program typically find assistantships.

Apply for positions you are qualified for: search The Graduate School website or Student Job Board for open positions. If you are qualified for a position, you may apply even if the position is outside of your graduate program.

Follow the application instructions: each position requires slightly different materials for application. Just as with job applications, pay special attention to the requirements and tailor your materials to fit the job description provided. Address your materials to the appropriate contact person and check your documents thoroughly for spelling and grammar.

Search for positions often, even after the school year has begun: many assistantships open mid-year or even during the semester. An assistantship can be awarded at any time.

Most graduate courses will require specific textbooks, which are available through the on-campus GVSU Laker Store. If class sections are added at the last minute or are over-enrolled there may be a delay in books being available. The GVSU Laker Store can help you special order an out of stock item which generally arrives in 3-5 days. Students are advised to buy books before the semester begins. Receipts are required for refunds, reimbursement, or possible tax credits. 100% refunds are only allowed through the first week of classes.

*Public law requires universities to provide lists of required textbooks to other book retailers. You can shop around locally and online. Public and GVSU libraries may also have books.

Locations and Hours
Books for classes taught in Grand Rapids can be purchased from the GVSU Laker Store located on the east side of the first floor of DeVos Center Building C. The hours of operation vary with the academic calendar but extended hours are offered the first week of the semester. Click here for the current schedule.

Books for classes taught in Allendale, Holland, Muskegon, and all online classes are available at the GVSU Laker Store located at The Marketplace in Allendale. This is the primary bookstore location, featuring textbooks and a much larger selection of clothing and merchandise. The Allendale and Grand Rapids locations may not have the same hours.

Online Ordering
Textbooks for all classes are available online through the GVSU Laker Store website. GVSU Choose is a price comparison tool that allows you to view textbook prices from GVSU Laker Store and other retailers in one convenient location. It’s also your source for rentals and e-books.

Tip: Textbooks can be transferred between the Allendale and Grand Rapids locations

Transportation Information/Busing
Website link
Phone: 616-331-6700 (Facilities Services Grand Rapids & Regional Centers)

All Grand Valley students, faculty, and staff can ride The Rapid bus system for free by presenting their ID card to the driver. The University contracts with The Rapid through the Interurban Transit Partnership, which provides a variety of public transportation services for the Grand Rapids metro area and beyond. The free rides on The Rapid bus service include not only all university routes but all public regularly scheduled routes as well. It does not include the County Link, Airporter, or PASS bus services.
Campus Connector
Grand Valley’s Campus Connector (Route #50) provides service between Allendale and Grand Rapids with runs every day during the fall and winter semesters and Monday through Friday during the spring/summer semester. The Campus Connector makes round trips from the Cook-DeVos Center for Health Sciences (CHS) on the Pew Grand Rapids Campus to the Kirkhof Center on the Allendale Campus with stops in downtown Grand Rapids, along Lake Michigan Drive and at Mackinac Hall.

North and South Campus Express
There are two routes that service a variety of private apartment complexes immediately adjacent to the Allendale Campus. The North Campus Express (Route #37) serves the northern complexes, complexes along 48th Ave, and the Kirkhof Center. The South Campus Express (Route #48) serves the southern complexes, Lot J, Campus Health Center, and Kirkhof Center. The routes both run Monday through Friday, fall and winter semesters only.

Weekend Bus Connector
On weekends during fall and winter semesters, two shuttles service the GVSU campuses. The Weekend Connector (Route #50) provides late night and weekend service between Kirkhof Center and CHS.

Apartment Shuttle
Two apartment shuttles combine into one route, called Weekend Apartment Shuttle (Route #85). Weekend services are only offered during fall and winter semesters.

There are a number of ways to connect to other Rapid routes, which are free to ride with a valid GVSU ID. The Route 12 stop on Fulton is located in the middle of the Pew Campus, and the downtown Grand Rapids stops correspond with the Silver Line. Both routes offer connectivity to Rapid Central Station where buses are available to all Rapid bus routes.

Bus Schedules
Both The Rapid and University Bus Route schedules are subject to change. Click here to view the current schedules. During the spring/summer semester, GVSU bus routes are less frequent and some are entirely suspended. When classes are not in session, the bus may be on a limited "Break Schedule."

Questions about university transportation should be directed to Facilities Services Grand Rapids & Regional Centers at 616-331-6700.

GVSU bus schedules change with the academic calendar
Current schedules can be viewed here

Bus Stops
To catch the Campus Connector (#50) westbound to Allendale (from DeVos Center), go to the bus shelters under the US 131 freeway overpass on Front Ave., between Eberhard Center and DeVos Center. Please note there are two stops at this location: Westbound (to Allendale) and Eastbound (to CHS and RFH). There is also a bus stop at the corner of Seward and Lake Michigan Drive, near the Seward Parking Ramp. The number 50 will be displayed above the front windshield, along with the destination/direction. This bus also makes stops along Lake Michigan Drive on the way out to Allendale. Only Route #50 goes to Allendale but other busses will also use those bus stops. In Allendale, the bus stops are located near Mackinac Hall and Kirkhof Center. These bus stops are shared with the North Campus Express (#37), South Campus Express (#48) and Weekend Apartment (#85), so be sure to get on the Campus or Weekend Connector (#50) if you want to return to Grand Rapids.

Campus Connector Stops List:
- Cook-DeVos Center for Health Sciences/Raleigh J. Finkelstein Hall
- Various downtown Grand Rapids locations
- Under the US 131 freeway on Front Ave (Westbound & Eastbound stops)
- Seward Parking Ramp
- Along Fulton Street/Lake Michigan Drive
- Allendale Campus

To get to the Cook-DeVos Center for Health Sciences Building, take the Eastbound Campus Connector (#50). The CHS bus stop is located on the northwest corner of Lafayette Ave and Michigan St, across from CHS. This stop also serves Raleigh J. Finkelstein Hall (RPH), which is just north of CHS.

Bike Racks
All Rapid buses have a bike rack located on the front of the bus. When the bus stops, unhook the bike rack and attach your bike. Consider this option when you explore the riding trails around Grand Rapids. Taking your bike on the bus is often a popular option with college students using the Campus Connector (#50). All Rapid busses can only accommodate two bikes at a time, and it is illegal to take a bike onto the bus. So, be prepared to wait for the next bus or quickly find a place to lock up your bike if the rack is full. There are bike racks located under the US 131 overpass at Eberhard Center, at DeVos Center, at Seidman Center, at the Kirkhof bus stop, and at the inbound Mackinac Hall bus stop.

Biking Services
GVSU also offers a Bike Rental Program, Borrow a Bike Lock Program, and Bicycle Registration. These programs can all be found online. Bicycle safety tips, maps of GVSU and local Grand Rapids trails, and commuting tips are also available.

Rideshares and Park & Ride
Ride-Matching services are available for students, faculty, and staff looking for carpool/ride-share information.

GVSU has designated parking areas where students can park for free and ride the bus to campus with a valid GVSU ID. GVSU Transportation Services has coordinated two designated Park & Ride locations near Standale, one at the Meijer on Wilson and one at the Walker Fire Station on M-45/Lake Michigan Drive. Click here for more information.
Parking

All parking on Grand Valley property is regulated Monday through Thursday 7a to 6:30p and Friday from 7a to 5p during the fall and winter semesters. During the spring/summer semester, permits are not required in student parking lots. However, parking meters and restricted parking spaces (including faculty, staff, delivery, alternative fuel, carpooling, service vehicle, and resident parking) are regularly monitored.

Seward Parking Ramp on Pew Campus
A word of caution: be advised that the downtown Seward Parking Ramp hours are 6 a.m. to 11 p.m. Monday through Friday. It is closed Saturday and Sunday. If you do not get to the ramp before it closes, you may call (616) 331-6677 and have a security officer meet you there or go to the Lake Michigan Drive ramp entrance area; to the left is a door that leads into the ramp. Next to the door is an intercom system with a button to call Security to open the door; so you can get to your car. The ramp gates should open automatically when you approach them from inside and close after you leave. Overnight parking in the Seward Ramp is prohibited. Overnight parking is available in our resident lots with a guest permit and is enforced from 3 a.m. to 7 a.m.

Don’t forget to check the ramp closing time

Disability Parking
Disability parking for students is available in faculty/staff parking lots. You will need both your disability parking permit placard or license plate and a student or visitor parking permit. On the Grand Rapids Pew Campus, you can park in disability spaces in the parking lots next to Eberhard Center and DeVos Center and under CHS in the upper parking area. In addition to the designated disability parking, any other space, with the exception of service vehicle or reserved parking spaces, are available. If parking in a metered space, you do not have to pay the meter however the parking permits are required.

Parking Permits
Information regarding parking permits is mailed to all students when they are admitted. Parking permits can be purchased in person in Allendale at The Parking Services front desk located in the Grand Valley Police Department and the Pew Campus Security front desk located in the Eberhard Center. For a limited time, in-person permit purchases can be done at the Kirkhof Center – Move-in week Monday thru Friday 9 am to 4 pm and the first week of classes Monday thru Thursday 9 am to 4 pm. (you will receive your permit at the time of purchase.) Permits must be ordered online with the exception of the previously mentioned time-frame, although you can pay for them at Student Assistance Centers. You must complete an online form and a temporary permit will be created for you to print out with the actual permit arriving later via the U.S. mail. Permits can be pre-ordered before the semester begins and charged to your student account, or paid by credit card when ordered online. Simply paying for a parking permit will not get you a permit; you must complete the “Purchase a Permit” form online. Obtaining a parking permit requires you to log in to MyBanner, see the MyBanner and G-number section on page 8 for more login information.

You will need a parking permit to park on the Grand Rapids and Allendale campuses during fall or winter semesters before 6:30 p.m. Monday to Friday. Student and staff/faculty parking areas are open to everyone after 6:30 p.m. weekdays.
Parking tickets are expensive and parking permit patrols are regularly scheduled

Residential parking areas are restricted 24/7 to students with residential parking permits. For the academic year 2017-2018, there are three options for parking permits: students taking 7 or more credits are charged $200/semester and those taking 6 or fewer credits are charged $110/semester. Those using the Lot J-Commuter pass are charged $65/semester. Lot-J Commuter passes are only available over the counter at GVSU Parking Services, located within the Police Department in Allendale. Please note that Lot J-Commuter passes are not valid on the Pew Campus in Grand Rapids.

Parking rules and regulations on Grand Valley campuses are strictly enforced. Citations range from $15.00 to $100.00 depending on the infraction. Please read the parking regulations, or stop by the Grand Valley Police Department or Pew Campus Security for a printed version of the parking regulations.

Parking permits are static cling and easily transferred from one car to another. If someone else uses your permit and gets a ticket, as the registered owner of the parking permit, you will be held responsible. This ease of transfer makes parking permits a target for theft. To prevent yourself from becoming a victim, please remember to close your car windows and lock your vehicle so no one reaches in and takes your parking permit. Report all parking permit thefts to the Department of Public Safety or Pew Campus Security.

Close your car windows to protect your permit from theft!

Street Parking

Street parking in downtown Grand Rapids is widely available. Meters in close proximity to Pew Campus are enforced from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m., Monday through Saturday. If you are here during the daytime, you can look for a place on the Fulton Street Bridge over the Grand River. These meters feature a reduced rate, and you can park there for up to ten hours at a time. Parking on residential streets is prohibited and tickets are issued by the Grand Rapids Police Department.

Private and Government Parking Ramps and Lots

Across from Eberhard Center is a private parking ramp. Above the entryway, it says Museum Parking Ramp. This ramp usually offers a special discount or flat rate to Grand Valley students in the evening. Nearby businesses and organizations, including the YMCA, do not offer student parking. When the Gerald R. Ford Museum is closed, their parking lot is usually open for parking.

The City of Grand Rapids operates three surface parking lots near the downtown campus. Two of these lots require a monthly parking card available on a first come first served basis. One lot uses both monthly cards and a coin operated entrance system. GVSU is near a Dash bus route, which means you can take a Dash bus between Dash parking lots, the main bus terminal, and the Pew campus. For additional information on city parking lots and Dash routes, contact the City of Grand Rapids parking department.

The Student Assistance Center (SAC) can help with many aspects of university paperwork. At the SAC you can pay for tuition, parking permits or any other charge on your student account via cash or check. You can also enroll, change, drop, add, or withdraw from a course. The staff can also provide information and assistance including a print-out of your current courses, a map, and directions to your classes. This is where you obtain your Student ID card and apply for a graduation audit during the semester that you plan to graduate. If you work on campus or have a graduate assistantship, you are encouraged to use Direct Deposit. Forms for Direct Deposit can be found online through your MyBanner account or from Human Resources. If you do not have Direct Deposit, this is also where you can pick-up your paycheck (location for pickup is based on your work location). You can also request transcripts and verification of enrollment at these locations.

Hours
During the fall and winter semesters, the Pew Campus (Grand Rapids) and Allendale Student Assistance Centers windows are open Monday through Thursday 8 a.m. to 6 p.m., Friday 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Both locations are open Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. during the summer semester.

Location
In Grand Rapids on the Pew Campus, the Student Assistance Center is located on the first floor of DeVos Center Building C, on the north side of the plaza. This is the building on the left as you walk from the parking ramp. When you enter the first door to the left from the parking ramp, the Student Assistance Center windows are straight ahead, opposite the doors.

In Allendale, the Student Assistance Center is located on the first floor of the Student Services Building. When you enter the building from the west side, which is closest to the parking lots and the flagpole, the stairway will be directly in front of you and the Student Assistance Center windows are to the left. If you enter from the campus or east side with the fountain, the stairway will be in front of you and the elevators on your right. After you pass between the stairs and the elevators, you will see the Student Assistance Center windows to the right.

Student ID Card
You will use your Student ID card often so get one as soon as possible. These ID cards are used to check books out of Grand Valley’s library, reserve library materials online, ride The Rapid bus for free, provide photo identification on campus, and obtain area student discounts.

How to Obtain
Identification cards can be processed on the spot at the Student Assistance Center anytime they are open. You will need your driver’s license, passport, or another form of government-issued picture ID and Student G-number. The initial card is free, and replacement cards are $15.00.
When to Get
Cards can be obtained from the Student Assistance Center windows on the Grand Rapids or Allendale campuses anytime they are open. Get one at your earliest opportunity, including during New Graduate Student Orientation.

Michicard Library Activation
Once you have your card, visit one of the Grand Valley libraries to ensure it is activated with their system and obtain a Michicard sticker for your card. A Michicard sticker provides borrowing privileges at nearly all public and university libraries throughout Michigan. Alternatively, you can reserve or order a book to be transferred within the library system to see if your card was activated automatically when it was issued. If the computer rejects your card number (located above the barcode), you need to visit a GVSU library in person and activate it at the circulation desk.

Are you a degree seeking graduate student or a non-degree seeking graduate student? If you have received a formal acceptance letter from your program, your student status is degree seeking.

If you filled out a brief one-page document asking for name, address, and other basic information and are taking a few graduate-level courses to help decide whether to pursue a graduate education, or to complete an endorsement planned program, your status is likely non-degree seeking. Please contact the Office of Admissions if you are unsure of your status.

If you elect to enter a graduate degree program, there are specific application procedures that you must follow. You will need to fill out the graduate application and follow all additional procedures necessary to be formally admitted as a degree seeking student in a specific degree program before you can obtain a graduate degree from GVSU.

Housing & Residence Life

Phone: 616-331-2120
Location: Allendale Campus, Student Services Building, First Floor, 103 & 104 STU

Grand Valley has some of the newest options for on-campus living at a public university in Michigan. Housing options exist on both the Allendale and Grand Rapids campuses. Our contracts are for the Fall and Winter Semesters, Winter only and/or the Spring/Summer semester.
Application Deadline
Students are placed in order of application and are encouraged to apply early. Once you have been admitted to the University, please fill out an application and submit a $150.00 security deposit. This may be done online, please click on Apply Now located at the bottom of the page.

Choices
For our upper-level undergraduate and graduate students, GVSU offers apartments, efficiencies/studios, and townhomes. Many of our upper-level undergraduate and graduate students opt to live Downtown Grand Rapids at our Pew Campus. Secchia Hall has one, two, three and four bedroom apartments where each student has their own private bedroom. Winter Hall has 1 and 2 bedroom efficiencies/studio units. Both halls are fully furnished and residents are not required to purchase a meal plan.

Cost
Housing rates are available online. Rates are usually set in February for the following academic year.

Off-campus Referrals
If you prefer to reside off campus, a listing of private landlords is available online. There are occasional notices posted on bulletin boards around campus from fellow students looking for a roommate. Apartment ads can also be found in Grand Valley’s student newspaper, the Lanthorn, and especially in the Sunday edition of the Grand Rapids Press newspaper. Heritage Hill is a popular area for college student apartments. Their neighborhood association maintains a website with apartment, house, and roommate listings. Please note that a Grand Rapids city ordinance stipulates that no more than four unrelated people may share a residence.

Network Log In

Log-in to the University network using your User ID and Password. Your User ID is set by Grand Valley and will be mailed to your registered address in a letter with a temporary password. The ID will contain a combination of your last name and first initial (Example: smitjoe). When logging in for the first time, you will be prompted to reset your temporary password.

If you do not know your network login ID, go to the MyBanner login page. You can choose to login with your network ID or G number. Select the “I am not a Robot” checkbox and enter your password. The default password was sent to you in a letter when you were accepted at GVSU.

If you do not know your password please click on the Reset password link. This will bring you to a web page where you can choose to reset your MyBanner password or your network password. Follow the prompts on the subsequent pages to reset your passwords.

If you have problems with your account and resetting the password please contact the helpdesk at 616-331-2101 or at 1-855-435-7488 (toll-free).

Your account will be locked if you use an incorrect Password more than three times after two failures, “RESET” your PASSWORD.
If your account is locked, call the Records Department at 616-331-3327 during business hours.

Tutorials and How To's: Help website

Blackboard is an online course management system that faculty use for distributing course materials, communicating with students, posting assignments and grades, and much more. Many courses require the use of Blackboard. All GVSU courses and many organizations are assigned a Blackboard site, although not all faculty members utilize their MyBB course sites. When you log in, using your User ID and Password, your MyBB page appears containing links to your currently activated BB courses and organizations. As a graduate student, you will be automatically enrolled in the Graduate Students Blackboard Group. You must be registered in a graduate class for 10 hours before the site will appear. To learn how to use Blackboard please click Blackboard Tutorial for Students on the portal page.

Blackboard Help documents
Blackboard can be an integral part of your GVSU classes. Please review the introduction and online tutorial for using Blackboard here.
Class Roster/Personal Information

On your MyBB page there is a link for "Personal Information" in the “Tools” module on the left side of the screen. Click on "Set Privacy Options" to choose what information you would like to make public.

Customizing

Your MyBB page can be easily customized and organized to meet your needs.

- The tabs across the top of the page allow you to access many of the University's most commonly used resources.
- Drag and drop modules, like My Courses, My Organizations or My Announcements anywhere on the page. You can also minimize or adjust the settings for a module by selecting the appropriate icon at the top, right of the module.
- The “Add Module” button allows you to add and delete modules. Only those with a green “Add” button can be removed. Do not remove “My Announcements”!

Announcements

Graduate Student Announcements will be posted to the "My Announcements" module in lieu of a graduate newsletter. Many reminders, deadlines, and useful pieces of information can be found here. You will also see postings from your professors, Pew Student Services, the Graduate Student Association, some graduate assistantship openings, and other announcements from GVSU specifically for graduate students.

If you miss an announcement or need to see it again, you can click on the "more announcements..." button at the bottom of the module. Using the tabs and drop down window at the top right, you can then sort and review announcements by class, organization, GVSU or all.

Blackboard Mobile App

The new BB Student mobile app is free. This app allows you to access your course information - such as grades, assignments, and announcements - from your mobile device. This app is available on the App Store and on the Google Play Store.

BB Collaborate Ultra

Blackboard Collaborate Ultra provides a single web conferencing room for your course that stays open for the life of your course called “Course Room.”

For more information on how to use this feature, check out our BB Collaborate Ultra handouts found on our Teaching with Technology Student Help page.

Email

Redirect Student Email Account

All official GVSU email (i.e. Records, Admissions, Billing, Housing, Blackboard, etc.) goes to your GVSU email account. You may forward your GVSU email to a preferred account; however, it is your responsibility to make sure you receive all GVSU email.
Forwarding mail to another email account automatically

Gmail allows you automatically forward incoming mail to another email address. To forward messages automatically:

1. Click Settings at the top of any Gmail page, and open the Forwarding and POP/IMAP tab.
2. From the first drop-down menu in the Forwarding section, select ‘Add new email address.’
3. Enter the email address to which you’d like your messages forwarded.
4. For your security, we’ll send verification to that email address.
5. Open your forwarding email account, and find the confirmation message from the Gmail team.
6. Click the verification link in that email.
7. Back in your Gmail account, select the 'Forward a copy of incoming mail to...' option and select your forwarding address from the drop-down menu.
8. Select the action you’d like your messages to take from the drop-down menu. You can choose to keep Gmail’s copy of the message in your inbox, or you can send it automatically to All Mail or Trash.
9. Click Save Changes.

Computer Labs

GVSU has standardized a variety of supported computer applications for both PC and MAC. In addition, certain disciplines may require the use of specialized software for their classes which can also be found in the lab environment. For a complete list of lab locations, computer types, and specialty software, visit GVSU information technology page and select the “Computer Labs” tab and then click “Locations and Computer Types.”

File Storage

Every student has 1 gigabyte of data storage on a private drive. The network storage space is accessed via your user ID and password. When you save a file in a GVSU lab, the file is automatically directed to network storage space: You may access this storage space from off campus.

Device Registration

If you would like to access the internet with your gaming console, smart tv, or another streaming device, you must register the MAC address of the device through our online portal. Click on "Register a Gaming Device" located under self-service options. Select the device you would like to register in the drop down. You will now have to find the mac address of the device. Each device can either be registered to the wired or wireless network, but not both. The wireless and wired MAC address on each device will be different, so it is important to choose the correct one. Then check the box indicating which type of a connection you would like to register. Due to how the devices interact with our network, PS3s, Wiss, and Ouyas must be registered with a wired connection. Our campus also does not support Google Chromecast. We are sorry for any inconveniences

Hours
- Hours at each library location vary. For the current and up-to-date hours, please check the website here or call 616-331-3500. Please note that the hours are limited when classes are not in session and are extended during final exam week.
- Exam Cram: In addition to longer hours during final exam week, the libraries offer a variety of community building events to reduce the stress of final exams.

Research Assistance

Your Librarians
- Librarians are faculty in the University Libraries unit and experts in the discipline of library and information sciences. We are happy to provide assistance with your research and do provide one-on-one consultations with students. To find your librarian please consult our Subject Librarian webpage.

Subject Guides
- Librarians are aware of how frustrating it can be locating scholarly sources, which is why we offer subject specialized guides to better assist with finding quality resources in your discipline. You can find guides available for all majors and some for specialized courses. To find your subject guide go to library guide.

Citation Management Tools
- A citation management tool is a great way to organize your research, especially when writing your thesis. The library supports several online citation management tools. For more information visit University Libraries Citing Sources and click on the Manage Citations... tab.
Scholarly Communications & ScholarWorks@GVSU

- The University Libraries’ Scholarly Communications program promotes open access to scholarly information and supports new and emerging forms of scholarly dissemination. The program provides faculty and students with instruction, resources, and individual consultations about open access, academic publishing, copyright issues, and more.

- ScholarWorks@GVSU is an open-access repository maintained by the GVSU Libraries, a platform for sharing and showcasing the scholarly works produced by GVSU faculty, staff, and students. The graduate student works in ScholarWorks@GVSU are downloaded more than a hundred thousand times each year by researchers and readers around the world.

Collections and Spaces

Steelcase Library Collections

- Steelcase Library’s collection covers Business, Economics, Legal Studies, Social Work, Public & Nonprofit Administration, Engineering, Education, and Criminal Justice. The entire circulating collection is housed in an Automated Storage and Retrieval System (ASRS). Browsing the collection is done using our online catalog, and books are retrieved automatically when requested and are available for pickup at the Steelcase service desk.

- Additionally, the Steelcase Library houses the collection for the Dorothy A. Johnson Center for Philanthropy and Nonprofit Leadership. The Johnson Collection comprises one of the most comprehensive collections on philanthropy, volunteerism, and nonprofit leadership initiative in the nation. The collection supports the mission of the Dorothy A. Johnson Center for Philanthropy and Nonprofit Leadership, scholarly research by students and faculty in the School of Public & Nonprofit Administration and other academic departments, the University’s Development Division, and members of Michigan’s nonprofit community.

Steelcase Library Spaces

- The beautiful reading room features a cathedral ceiling, quiet study areas, stained glass windows, and a current reference and periodical collection with an emphasis in the subjects of business, education, legal studies, Social Work, Public & Nonprofit Administration, engineering, and criminal justice.

- Designed with collaborative learning in mind, the Steelcase Library offers workspaces for individuals and small teams complete with movable furniture, whiteboard walls, and semi-private workrooms during the day. At night, the space hosts the Knowledge Market, where students can get help with writing and research projects from highly trained peers.

The Curriculum Materials Library (CML)

- The mission of the CML is to make available for preview, review, analysis and use, a sampling of current, high-quality instructional materials for preschool through grade twelve. Located in 201A DeVos, the CML primarily serves the College of Education faculty and students located on the Pew Campus in Grand Rapids. A limited number of textbooks and resource books are available at the Mary Idema Pew Library on the 4th floor.

Frey Foundation Learning Center Collections

- The Frey Foundation Learning Center supports GVSU’s programs in allied health sciences, medical laboratory science, nursing, occupational therapy, physician assistant studies, physical therapy, public health, radiologic and imaging sciences, speech-language pathology, and therapeutic recreation. The most current ten years of books and journals are accessible in 290 CHS. Older books and journals are housed in the Automated Storage and Retrieval
Systems (ASRS) at the Steelcase or Mary Idema Pew Libraries. They may be requested via the library's online catalog and delivered to any GVSU library location.

Frey Foundation Learning Center Spaces
- CHS 290: The second-floor location contains the most current ten years of print books, print journals, DVDs and videos (non circulating) and theses, supporting GVSU’s health science and nursing programs. Reference assistance, course reserves, document delivery, laptop computers, and headphones can be obtained at the circulation desk located here.
- CHS 490: The fourth-floor location houses viewing stations for DVDs, student collaborative learning spaces, and librarian offices.

Mary Idema Pew Library Collections
- The library’s open stacks can hold 150,000 books, allowing for browsing and serendipitous discovery. The books are surrounded by window seats, carrels, and cozy chairs to encourage students to linger.
- The rest of the collection is housed in an Automatic Storage and Retrieval System (ASRS) that can hold up to 600,000 books while taking up a fraction of the space conventional shelving would require. Books may be requested on the library’s website and delivered to patrons in minutes at the service desk.

Mary Idema Pew Library Spaces
- In the Mary Idema Pew Library, each element in the space—29 types of seating, a variety of tables and equipment, mobile and floor-to-ceiling whiteboards, and objects that stimulate creativity—has been chosen to help students make the space their own. The east side of the library is quiet and contemplative, while the west wing invites conversation and offers collaborative workspaces to support the way students learn today and to prepare them for tomorrow’s team-oriented work environments. The library offers several outdoor spaces, including an amphitheater on the north side of the building, patio seating next to the café, and a reading garden on the third floor. There are a variety of unique and enticing indoor environments.
- Nineteen group study rooms accommodate groups of two to twelve and can be reserved online.
- The library has two rooms for library instruction: a traditional 48-seat computer lab as well as a 30-seat lab designed for high-tech collaboration. Both labs are open to students when not reserved for formal instruction.
- On the Atrium level, the library will have the ability to host educational speakers and larger events in the Multipurpose Room and more intimate exhibitions and performances in the glass-enclosed Exhibition Space.

Library Services

Document Delivery
- Can’t find the article or book you need? The University Libraries will get you a copy if we don’t have it online. All you have to do is ask, and we’ll do the rest. The best way to order material is to go to the website. You will need to log-in with your GVSU network ID and password.

Course Reserve
- Most course reserves are accessible electronically. You will need your GVSU network ID and password to access the electronic course reserves. Some course reserves, such as books and DVDs, are only available at a library and must be used at that location.
Circulation
- Graduate students can check out up to 30 books at a time for ten weeks, and each book may be renewed twice before their due date for five additional weeks. Please note that this doesn't apply to our popular reading collection, which circulates for a non-renewable, four-week period.

Laptops and computers
- Laptops are available to check out at the Mary Idema Pew, Steelcase and Frey Foundation Learning Center (CHS) for two-hour periods. Students are also welcome to use the Steelcase and Mary Idema Pew Libraries’ learning labs during library hours when the room is not scheduled for a class.

Need More Information? Just ask!
- You can visit us in person, telephone, email, chat, text or tweet. Look for the “Get Help Now” link on the top right of the library’s homepage.

The Marketplace includes Starbucks as well as Which Wich with a variety of sub, salad and shake options. Both Mackinac and Au Sable Hall, feature an express C-Store with snacks, beverages and sandwiches. Einstein Bros. Bagels, is on the ground floor in Holton-Hooker LLC. Inside The Connection you’ll find Engrained, a C-Store and Papa John’s.

Meal Plans and Dining Dollars
GVSU offers Meal Plans, which are optional for graduate students living off-campus or in graduate housing. Plans are versatile and offer a combination of Meals and/or Dining Dollars, which can be used like a debit account for all Campus Dining purchases.

All Meal Plans and Dining Dollars are accessed by the 14-digit barcode on the back of your Student ID.

Contact Campus Dining at gvsufood@gvsu.edu or visit the website to sign up for a Meal Plan or to learn more about locations, hours, offers and nutritional information. For allergy or nutrition questions please contact Campus Dining’s Registered Dietitian, Mary Cummings, MS, RDN via email mary_cummings@gvsu.edu

Closings and Cancellations

Website link

The University will occasionally close or cancel classes. Decisions to close or cancel classes due to weather will typically be made by 6:30 a.m. for daytime classes and 3:00 p.m. for evening classes. Closings will be announced via the GVSUAlert! system, on Grand Valley’s homepage, WGVU-FM 88.5, local TV, and radio stations. More information on closings and a complete list of stations that carry closing announcements can be found online.

Faculty members may have additional weather attendance information articulated in their course syllabus. During inclement weather, faculty may notify students of a class cancellation or tell students that anyone choosing not to attend due to the weather and road conditions will not be penalized. These notifications are typically sent via email.

Any individual classes that are cancelled by a faculty member for any reason (weather, sickness, etc.) are not broadcast via any University notification. It is the faculty member's responsibility to notify students if an individual class is cancelled. Faculty will usually send email notification of a class cancellation.

During a tornado warning, the university has additional warning procedures in place. Both the Grand Rapids campuses and Allendale campus, utilize outdoor tornado warning sirens that can be heard if you are out of doors on campus. During a tornado warning, a University-wide GVSUAlert! is sent to all students, faculty, and staff. Classes are suspended only during a tornado warning. Tornado Safety Locations are designated in each building on campus. A complete list of shelter areas by building for both campuses is available at www.gvsu.edu/shelter Shelter areas inside buildings display a sign to denote them as a designated tornado safety location
GVSUALERT! Emergency Notification System

Website link-to register
Phone: 616-331-2145 (for questions)
Email: gvsunotify@gvsu.edu (for questions)

Grand Valley has implemented an emergency notification system in order to deliver urgent and emergency information to students, faculty, and staff. Current students are automatically registered to receive email messages at their university email address. In addition, students may register to receive messages to a landline phone, cell phone, text/PDA device, and additional email addresses. To subscribe to the system and register additional contact options, go to their website.

The GVSAlert! system will be used to send out urgent information, such as closings and class cancellations due to inclement weather (snowstorms and tornado warnings), and alerts involving public safety and health. Messages are triggered as soon as there is confirmation of a dangerous situation or an Emergency that affects the community. There is no charge for this service; however, those choosing to receive text/cell messages do so with the understanding that standard incoming call/text fees apply based on your cell phone calling plan.

This system does cross-reference with enrollment information. Only currently enrolled students will receive notifications. There is no need to unsubscribe from the system when you are not taking classes or when you graduate.

Campus officers are available at all times.
Please report any suspicious activity on or near campus to:

Responsible Conduct of Research Training for Graduate Students

Website link
Phone: 616-331-7105
Email: gradschool@gvsu.edu

Each graduate student must complete Responsible Conduct of Research (RCR) training prior to completion of 50% of the graduate program or prior to engaging in any research activity (e.g. voluntary, independent, or supervised research, projects, theses, and dissertations). Each graduate program has designated a specific course or online module to best match the program curricula. To view your program's requirements, please visit RCR website.

Graduate Presidential Research Grants

Website link
Phone: 616-331-7105
Email: gradschool@gvsu.edu

Grant awards up to $1,500 are available to graduate students to support their research projects. Students must be degree seeking and the research must be tied to some aspect of their graduate degree. These grants are usually given to support research connected to a student’s thesis or final scholarly project. The application forms are available to download online. In addition to research funds, Presidential Research Grant recipients are automatically eligible to receive Academic Conference Funds for a conference presentation (see next section).

To apply you will need to complete the cover sheet and provide a summary of the project and budget, a detailed research description, and letters of support from your major advisor or research advisor and approved by your college dean. Decisions will be made by a committee comprised of faculty from graduate programs across GVSU. If you have any questions, contact The Graduate School at 616-331-7105.

Application Deadlines:
October 15 for research occurring in a Winter semester.
March 15 for research occurring in a Spring/Summer semester.
June 15 for research occurring in a Fall semester.
Graduate Academic Conference Fund

Phone: 616-331-7105
Email: gradschool@gvsu.edu

The Academic Conference Fund provides travel and presentation funding to graduate students. These grants are for students whose independent research or creative activities are accepted for presentation/exhibition/performance at a professional meeting or conference.

If your research is accepted for a poster or presentation at a professional conference at a state, regional, or national competitive juried event, and you are designated as the primary presenter, you are eligible to apply for a grant. The maximum award is $500 (or $750 for international travel) for students invited to present or perform at a conference or meeting. These awards are not intended for attendance at a meeting. Applications for support must be planned well in advance of any planned travel, as funds are limited and not guaranteed.

The application form is available online. Funding awards will be on a first come, first served basis each quarter. The application schedule is below:

Office of Research Compliance & Integrity
Website link
Phone: 616-331-3197
Email: rci@gvsu.edu

The Office of Research Compliance and Integrity (ORCI) is housed within the Center for Scholarly and Creative Excellence. Its mission is to ensure the safe, ethical conduct of human, animal and laboratory research compliant with university policy and regulatory requirements. The ORCI provides administrative support for the human and animal protocol review process, compliance monitoring, researcher education, and program communication.

Graduate students wishing to conduct research with human or animal subjects, radioactive materials or radiation producing equipment, chemicals, biologics, and other hazardous materials are subject to the training, review, and oversight provided by the committees and officers within the ORCI. Please discuss your proposed activities with your research advisor to ensure proper planning and compliance with all applicable regulations, safety standards, and University policies.

Animal Research:
The Institutional Animal Care & Use Committee (IACUC) reviews all planned teaching and research activities involving vertebrate animals at GVSU to ensure compliance with Federal regulations, GVSU policies, and standards for the humane treatment of animals. All use of vertebrate animals in teaching or research must receive prior written approval from the IACUC and are subject to postapproval monitoring. The IACUC provides training to all GVSU personnel involved with animal care and use and is administratively supported by the ORCI. Additional information about the IACUC can be found online.

Human Research:
The Human Research Review Committee (HRRC) reviews all planned research involving human subjects prior to the initiation of the research and approves studies that meet Federal regulations, GVSU policies, and research standards for the protection of human subjects. All GVSU researchers must receive written approval from the HRRC or exempt determination prior to conducting research. The HRRC is administratively supported by the ORCI. Additional information about the HRRC can be found online.

ORCI staff members are responsible for administering the animal and human protocol review process, researcher education, compliance monitoring, and administrative procedure development.

Laboratory Safety Program:
Grand Valley's Laboratory Safety Program has established guidelines to ensure safe research and academic activities in the university's labs, studios, shops, classrooms and field studies. The Lab Safety Program staff oversees compliance with federal and state regulations, and provides training programs for researcher activities involving the use of chemicals, biologics, and other hazardous materials. The Lab Safety Program is administered by the Chemical Hygiene Officer, additional details can be found online.

Radiation Safety Program:
The Radiation Safety Committee (RSC) and Radiation Safety Officer (RSO) oversee the safe use of radioactive materials and radiation producing equipment at GVSU. The RSC reviews and approves the use of radioactive materials and radiation producing equipment for research and educational purposes. The RSO supports the RSC and faculty to ensure compliance with state and federal regulations and GVSU's Radiation Safety Manual which includes training, personnel monitoring, and documentation requirements. Additional information can be found online.

BioSafety Program:
GVSU's Institutional Biosafety Committee (IBC) is the body responsible for reviewing and approving the safe use of biological agents and recombinant DNA. The Biosafety Manual establishes the roles and responsibilities of researchers and outlines policies and procedures necessary to be compliant with federal regulations and GVSU policies. The Biosafety Program is administered by the Biosafety Officer. Additional information can be found online.
Thesis and Dissertation Guidelines and Information

Website link
Phone: 616-331-7105
Email: gradschool@gvsu.edu

For students completing a thesis or dissertation, the official guidelines are available through The Graduate School on our Thesis and Dissertation Information webpage. Several forms and templates are available at the above webpage, as well as writing resources and helpful information to assist you in completing your thesis or dissertation.

This page also contains the thesis and dissertation defense and completion dates for each semester. Defenses must occur three weeks prior to the end of the semester in which you plan to graduate and final documents are due to The Graduate School on the last day of the semester.

Students must complete Responsible Conduct of Research Training prior to beginning a thesis or dissertation. Once enrolled in a thesis (695) or dissertation (696) course, students must also remain continuously enrolled in the appropriate 696 or 796 continuous enrollment course until the thesis or dissertation is submitted for final approval.

All students are required to attend a Thesis and Dissertation Workshop upon registering for a 695 (thesis) or 795 (dissertation) course for the first time. This free workshop is provided by The Graduate School multiple times throughout the year.

For questions, please contact The Graduate School’s Thesis and Dissertation Coordinator Jennifer Palm at palmj@gvsu.edu.

Requests for Exception to Graduate Policies

Website link
Phone: 616-331-7105
Email: gradschool@gvsu.edu

The Dean of The Graduate School is responsible for the review and final approval or denial of Petitions for Exception to graduate education policies. The student’s academic advisor, graduate program director, or dean of the academic college where the program resides, must support all exceptions in order for the Dean of The Graduate School to approve them. The student must complete the appropriate Petition for Exception form as provided on The Graduate School website. All materials must be submitted to The Graduate School either via email or as a paper copy.

Petition for Exception to Twelve-credit Hour Limit

Grand Valley policy allows graduate students to take a maximum of 12 graduate credit hours as a non-degree seeking graduate student without being admitted to a specific graduate program. Once the student gains admission to a graduate program any credit hours beyond the limit must be granted an exception to the policy in order to be counted toward the degree. The student seeking this exception should contact their academic advisor to initiate the Petition for Exception.
Petition for Exception to Eight-year Time Limit to Degree Completion

All courses to be counted for a master’s degree at Grand Valley must be completed within eight years. This time limit is a way of ensuring the student’s validity and currency of knowledge at the time of graduation. The student will be required to either repeat the course or take an approved substitute, if unable to demonstrate currency. The start date for the eight-year time limit begins with the first course taken toward the degree planned program.

Petition for Exception to Graduate Student Policies

Students seeking to appeal other graduate academic policies must complete the appropriate Petition for Exception form as provided on The Graduate School website. The student’s academic advisor, graduate program director, or dean of the college where the program resides, must support all exceptions for the Dean of The Graduate School to approve them.

Credit Overload

Full-time graduate students register for 9 to 12 credit hours per semester. Permission from the dean of the appropriate academic college is required for more than 15 hours per semester.

Petition to Return

Following a voluntary absence of two or more consecutive semesters a graduate student must complete a Petition to Return form. This form serves to update the student’s demographic record. Graduate students are reminded that following a voluntary absence of 24 consecutive months they must follow the Grand Valley State University Undergraduate and Graduate Catalog requirements in effect at the time of their return to Grand Valley. Such students should meet with their program advisor to revise their study plan.

Policies and Procedures

Website link

University policies are included in GVSU’s Undergraduate and Graduate Catalog. There are several policies that often confuse graduate students, and you may wish to review them. The Graduate School also provides resources to students to assist in the clarification of graduate policies and procedures.

Academic Dismissal: If you have been dismissed from Grand Valley and wish to return, you will need to file a Petition to Return through the Dean of your College.

Academic Probation for Financial Aid: If you have taken a total of 90 credits at the graduate level, or your GPA is too low, this probation may prohibit you from receiving financial aid.

Advising Handbooks: Graduate Advising handbooks for both students and faculty are available on The Graduate School website.

Emails: Students are prohibited from using university computers or databases to send mass emails.

Grade Requirements: Graduate students need a cumulative 3.0 GPA even when taking undergraduate courses. All graduate courses must have an earned grade of “C” or better.

Leave of Absence: A graduate student may request a Leave of Absence from a graduate program using the Leave of Absence form available in The Graduate School’s Forms Library.
Policies and Procedures Manual: The Graduate School has compiled a policies and procedures manual to serve as a comprehensive guide to graduate education for faculty, staff, and students at GVSU.

Student Code: This outlines student rights and responsibilities. Please review the Student Code and contact the Office of Dean of Students with any questions at 616-331-3585 or visit the Dean of Student Office website.

Graduation and Commencement
Website link

Please apply to graduate at the beginning of your last semester at Grand Valley. The application to graduate is a short form, also called a diploma card or degree audit card. It is available from all Student Assistance Centers or online as “Graduation Application-Graduate.” Completing this form will notify the university to audit your academic records and ensure you have met all degree requirements. The deadline to complete this form is usually half-way through the semester. Plan to complete the form early in the semester, before the deadline.

If you plan to walk in Grand Valley’s Commencement ceremony, you will need to complete and return the Ceremony Response Card. This form will be mailed to you after your application to graduate form has been received, and you have been approved to participate in Commencement. After returning the Ceremony Response Card by the deadline listed on the card, you will be able to obtain guest tickets for commencement and your cap, hood, and gown at Gradfest
The Career Center provides both undergraduate and graduate students, as well as alumni, career-related resources including career development, career planning and preparation, and career transition assistance.

Career Center advisors are available for individual assistance related to determining your interests and values relevant to career choices and providing career guidance and job search assistance.

To schedule an appointment, simply call or stop by our offices. Phone appointments are available for those unable to visit campus. Services offered include: Career testing and self-assessment, career planning, career exploration, graduate and professional school exploration, internships and cooperative education, interviewing skills and resume/cover letter writing skills, job search strategies and networking strategies.

Students are also invited to attend career-themed events to explore career options, develop an employment brand, and learn how to present job search materials. There are many opportunities to connect with local, regional, and national employers through on-campus interviews, career fairs and on- and off-campus events.

Handshake

The free online job search tool at provides students and alumni access to hundreds of internships and full-time jobs with Grand Valley employer partners. Chick here to view current openings.

Time-for-Ten

Is a walk-in program that allows for 10 minute individual consultation without an appointment. You are encouraged to bring a copy of your resume. Students are served on a first-come, first-serve basis.

The University Counseling Center supports the well-being of individual students and the campus community through a broad spectrum of services, including individual counseling, group counseling, and outreach. The Center is staffed by a diverse team of professional counselors committed to recognizing the unique needs and experiences of each student.

Individual and Group Counseling:
The University Counseling Center offers individual and group therapy at no cost to currently enrolled Grand Valley students. Students interested in counseling services can make an appointment over the phone or in person. Counselors and students work together to determine the best course of treatment, which may include individual counseling, group counseling, or referral to a community provider. The Center also has urgent care services for students experiencing a mental health crisis. More information about urgent care and emergency services is available on the University Counseling Center website or by calling the Center during business hours.

Examples of concerns that might benefit from counseling include:

- Feelings of anxiety or depression
- Thoughts of harming yourself or someone else
- Problems in relationships
- Recent or past trauma
- Issues related to sexual or cultural identity
- Death or loss of a loved one
- Drug or alcohol use
- Academic difficulties

Outreach:
Outreach workshops and events are scheduled throughout the academic year and equip students with the knowledge, skills, and resources necessary to maximize their emotional and physical health. Presentations related to well-being may also be requested on behalf of a student group or organization at any time. To view the outreach calendar or to submit a request for a presentation, please visit the University Counseling Center website. In addition, counselors are available to provide consultation to students with concerns about a roommate, classmate, or other members of the Grand Valley community.
ACES (Alcohol and Other Drugs Campus Education and Services)
Website link
Phone: (616) 331-2537
Location: Student Services Building, 206, Allendale Campus

The ACES office is a specialty program of the University Counseling Center and works in close collaboration with the Center’s staff and other departments around campus to address alcohol and drug issues. Our philosophy focuses on harm reduction and building awareness about making lifelong healthy and safe choices regarding alcohol and other drugs. Drinking behavior on campuses include abstinence, safe and responsible drinking, binge drinking and dangerous drinking. Because the needs of the campus community vary greatly, our programs focus on providing a variety of quality services in three main areas: Prevention & Education, Treatment & Intervention, and Recovery.

Prevention & Education
Our staff provides a variety of programming to students to help them make informed choices regarding their substance use in an interactive and non-judgmental style. We can come to classrooms, student organizations, or other settings to provide our standard or customized presentations. Contact our office for more information or to discuss potential topics.

Treatment & Intervention
Our clinical team has specialized training in working with substance abuse and dependency issues. For currently enrolled students, we offer short-term individual counseling and substance abuse related groups free of charge. Note: Court ordered/mandated counseling and assessments are not provided by our staff, but we can assist students in learning about community resources.

Recovery Services
We recognize that while most students do not have a problem with substances, there are some students that need added support for their sobriety and recovery while a student at GVSU. Non-mandated Recovery Coaching is provided free of charge to students through our office. We also host a variety of recovering meetings on the Allendale Campus including AA, NA, SMART Recovery and Adult Children of Alcoholics. For the most up-to-date Recovery Group information and schedule for on or off-campus meetings, please visit their website.

Disability Support Resources

Website-Campus Health Center or Website-Metro Health
Phone: 616-252-6030

In Allendale, the Campus Health Center is operated by Metro Health Systems/University of Michigan as part of their urgent care network. It is a full-service, on-campus center providing primary health care to individuals. Most forms of insurance are accepted. Students can receive care regardless of their insurance status. If a patient does not have insurance, they would receive a 40% discount on their services. This facility is located at 10383 42nd Avenue. _Please notes: this location is not affiliated with the University and bills as a family practice office (not on student accounts)._

Student Health Insurance

Website link

_Domestic Students:_
Grand Valley State University does NOT require you to have health insurance, but it is strongly encouraged. GVSU works with Blue Cross Blue Shield of Michigan to offer a plan on a voluntary basis to full- and part-time domestic students with excellent benefits. Students can choose the PPO or HMO plan. If you wish to be covered under the Student Health Insurance Plan, click the link above for more information or to enroll. If you are interested in seeing what other plans are available to you, please check out information on the Grand Valley State University private health insurance exchange. GVSU does not benefit financially in any way from these referral services.
International Students:
You are automatically enrolled in a health insurance program through the Padnos International Center. Please contact them at (616) 331-3898, via e-mail, or visit their site about Healthy Living for questions or more information on your insurance plan.

Knowledge Market
[Website link]
Phone: 616-331-3500
Location: Grand Rapids: DeVos Center, Steelcase Library Knowledge Market Building A
Allendale: Mary Idema Pew Knowledge Market, 1st floor

The Knowledge Market is a collaborative service that brings together multiple peer consulting services to assist students with research, writing, data analysis, and presentations. Available for appointments or drop-ins at the Mary Idema Pew Library in Allendale or the Steelcase Library in Grand Rapids, students can work with individual consultants from one service or involve multiple Knowledge Market partners in their consultation. Knowledge Market partners include the University Libraries, the Writing Center, the Data Inquiry Lab, and the Speech Lab. Hours and availability may vary based on campus location and time of the semester. To schedule an appointment or learn additional details about services, hours, and locations, visit the Knowledge Market Website.

Phone: 616-331-8115
Location: Allendale: 154 Lake Michigan Hall (Home Office)
Allendale: Mary Idema Pew Knowledge Market, 1st floor
Grand Rapids: DeVos Center, Steelcase Library Knowledge Market Building A

The GVSU Speech Lab provides oral presentation assistance to all graduate and undergraduate students. The Speech Lab has three locations on the Allendale and Grand Rapids campuses. All consultants have completed a nationally certified training program to assist students at any stage of the speaking process and provide feedback on speeches, conference-style presentations, interviews, and projects for any course or degree. Consultants can help speakers to brainstorm, organize, or develop their ideas; and they can help speakers edit their own work and document sources correctly. Graduate students can schedule or drop-in for a 30 or 60-minute consultation at both the Allendale and downtown locations.

The Lab employs both undergraduate and graduate consultants. In many cases, undergraduates can work successfully with graduate students, particularly on organization and delivery issues. But, if the assistance of a graduate consultant is necessary, please refer to the Center's website to set up an appointment with a graduate consultant. Additional details can be found on the Speech Lab’s website.

- Email consultation information website

The Fred Meijer Center for Writing provides writing assistance to all graduate and undergraduate students, with locations on the Allendale and Grand Rapids campuses as well as online hours through Google Docs. Graduate students also have access to email support through the Writing Center website. Writing consultants can provide assistance at any stage of the writing process and on any type of writing. Consultants are trained can help writers brainstorm, organize, or develop their ideas; and they can help writers edit their own work and document sources correctly.

Graduate students can drop-in for a 30-minute consultation or make a 50-minute appointment at both the Allendale and downtown locations.

The Writing Center employs both undergraduate and graduate writing consultants. Undergraduate consultants can work successfully with graduate students, particularly with areas such as the clarity of ideas, editing, and documentation issues. However, if the assistance of a graduate writing consultant is necessary, please refer to the Center's website to set up an appointment with a graduate writing consultant. As many graduate papers are quite lengthy, the Center does offer a read-ahead service, where papers are submitted 48 hours ahead of the appointment. To schedule an appointment or learn additional details about services, hours, and locations click here.

Data Inquiry Lab

Website link

The Data Inquiry Lab (DIL) provides support for student-led quantitative data management, visualization, and analysis. From workshops and in-classroom demonstrations to one-on-one consultation, the DIL’s purpose is to develop practical data skills of GVSU students, faculty, and staff.

The Data Inquiry Lab serves a variety of purposes for graduate students including but not limited to: providing guidance for using quantitative data in an assignment or research paper, providing one-on-one tutoring, helping identify and access quantitative data from the library, or guiding you through the steps of data ‘cleaning’, visualization, and analysis. They can also help students work through error messages in stats software and provide in-person and online support to guide students through the use of common statistical software titles, such as SAS, SPSS, Stata, and R.

The DIL operates during the fall and winter semesters. The lab is closed during the Spring/Summer semesters. Check the website above for drop-in hours, scheduling appointments, and workshops.
Statistical Consulting Center
Collaborating with the GVSU research community since 2001.

Email: statsconsulting@gvsu.edu
Website: www.gvsu.edu/scc
Location: Mackinac Hall, A 1-178 MAK

The Statistical Consulting Center (SCC) provides statistical advice and assistance with final projects and theses. The SCC seeks to provide an educational experience for undergraduate and graduate students studying statistics or data science by involving them in the operation of the Center. The Center is open during the academic year, fall and winter semesters, and part of the summer. Check the hours of operation on our website. Appointments must be made online. Consultation meetings can be in-person or virtual via Blackboard collaborate. The SCC does not offer walk-in consultations.

For undergraduate and graduate students, the research advisor must indicate by email (statsconsulting@gvsu.edu) the level of assistance that can be rendered by the SCC. Similarly, with any class project, the instructor must indicate in writing the level of assistance that can be rendered by the SCC.

Typically, students or faculty working on a thesis or research project make an appointment to discuss the project. Once the needs are determined, a student studying statistics or data science and a faculty member in the department of statistics will be assigned to work with the client. Any assistance provided by the SCC should be acknowledged in any resulting paper or presentation.

Register with GVSU Student Life Organization here, then search for ‘GSA’

The Graduate Student Association (GSA) seeks to foster the intellectual, professional, and social development of the graduate student community while promoting interdisciplinary communication and collaboration. GSA advocates for and is the primary voice for graduate students at Grand Valley State University. GSA offers exceptional opportunities for students in all graduate programs. Through GSA’s guidance, Students can serve on university advisory committees, attend professional development workshops, network with professionals, attend social events, and acquire funding throughout their graduate program. Participation from the broader community of graduate students is essential to effectively represent your needs.

GSA has much in store for the 2019-20 academic year including the GSA Fall Welcome. Visit our website for dates and times, and visit us on social media for event updates and other opportunities to get involved.

Reasons to Get Involved
- Advocate for you and your graduate student colleagues
- Create change at Grand Valley
- Network with colleagues
- Develop your professional skill set
- Increase access to job opportunities
- Give back to the community through service projects
- Build your resume
- Be an active member of the graduate student community

Grand Valley State University Graduate Faculty Awards
Based on nominations from graduate students, the Graduate Student Association determines who will receive the Outstanding Graduate Faculty Mentor Award, the Kimboko Inclusion Award, and the Outstanding Graduate Teaching Award. These awards are presented to deserving faculty at the end of fall and winter semesters at the Graduate Student Celebration event.

The Outstanding Graduate Faculty Mentor Award recognizes faculty members who exemplify a deep commitment to fostering the professional and personal development of graduate students.
The Kimboko Inclusion Award recognizes faculty members who have made significant contributions in outstanding teaching, distinctive research or creative works, or noteworthy service in moving GVSU graduate education toward being a more diverse and inclusive community.

The Outstanding Graduate Teaching Awards recognizes faculty members who deserve special recognition for exemplary teaching and graduate student development using thoughts and creative methods of instruction (classroom, clinical, and laboratory experiences).

All graduate students within two semesters of earning a graduate degree are invited to give their support to faculty members that they feel deserve special recognition for exemplary behavior. Please submit this information along with your nomination letter electronically to gradschool@gvsu.edu. For more information, please visit the website.

Peter C. Cook Leadership Academy

Website link
Phone: 616-331-2770
Email: hc@gvsu.edu; dowdinch@gvsu.edu
Contact: Chadd Dowding, CLA Program Manager

The Hauenstein Center’s Peter Cook Leadership Academy (CLA) is a leadership development program that runs during the academic year for aspiring student leaders. The academy combines insights from scholars, training and mentorship from professionals, and engagement with the broader Grand Rapids community. The CLA is open to both undergraduate and graduate students.

Leadership fellows from across the campus community gather approximately twice monthly to meet with national, state, and local leaders, to build community with one another, and to discuss leadership principles and best practices. Students are also provided with a myriad of opportunities to engage with members of the Grand Rapids community to actively utilize their own leadership skills through civic engagement, and to make a positive impact on the lives of others. Fellows can earn opportunities to attend national conferences and training programs, and to pursue individualized leadership-focused projects that advance their personal goals.

To become a leadership fellow, you will need to apply to the Cook Leadership Academy in the winter semester. The process begins with an online application located under the “Leadership Academy” tab on our website, and is followed by an interview before fellows are selected. Please note that this is a different program than the Laker Leadership efforts run by GVSU’s Office of Student Life, which is only available to undergraduates. Further details about the program and the schedule of meetings and speakers are available on the Hauenstein’s website, and advertised on GVSU’s main page.

Many Hauenstein Center and Cook Leadership Academy events are free and open to the public. Anyone interested in the programs is encouraged to attend.

Veterans Network

Phone: 616-331-3327

Grand Valley is recognized as a Gold Level educational institution by the Michigan Veterans Affairs Agency. The Veterans Network at GVSU provides support for all military-connected students, including veterans, active service members, and their families. This initiative focuses on supporting the transition from military to university student, academic success and degree completion, and the transition to successful post-military careers and professions for students. Services offered include highly-trained GI Bill certifying officials, veteran-specific job coaching and networking opportunities, counseling and mentoring, disability accommodations, flexible deployment accommodations, and more.

Some of the current initiatives include:

- Veterans Day Recognition Breakfast
- Veterans Lounge in Kirkhof Center
- Credit for Prior Military Training (ACE Guidelines)
- Veteran Awareness Training for faculty and staff
- Veterans Peer Advising
- Supporting GVSU’s Chapter of Student Veterans of America
- MyCAA Spousal Program Participant
- Red, White and Blue Recognition Cord for Commencement

Bias Incident Protocol

Website link

Email: tab@gvsu.edu

Anytime you or anyone in the Grand Valley community feels belittled, disrespected, threatened, or unsafe because of who you are, the entire university community is diminished. That’s why it’s important to report all bias incidents — even those intended as jokes.

Bias incidents take many forms — words, signs, symbols, threats or actions — electronic or real time. They include intimidation, vandalism, destruction of property, harassment, and expressions of hate or hostility; they have an adverse impact on a learning environment that is inclusive of all. Bias incidents are distinguished in the following ways.

Bias incidents can cause alarm, anger, fear, or resentment in others or endanger the health, safety, or welfare of anyone in the university community. They are directed toward an individual or group because of their race, color, national origin, sexual orientation, sex/gender, gender identity, gender expression, political affiliation, religion, familial status, marital status, disability, age, height, weight or veteran status.

If you have observed or experienced a bias incident, please report it through any of the following ways:

- Online: Click Here (If you wish to remain anonymous, please use the online reporting option)
- By Phone: Office of Dean of Students (616.331.3585)
- In Person: Office of Dean of Students Office, 202 STU
  or Division of Inclusion and Equity, 4035 JHZ

Graduate Council

Website link

The Graduate Council is a standing committee of the University Academic Senate. It focuses on issues relevant to graduate students and graduate education. The Council is a representative governance committee consisting of faculty members involved in graduate education, graduate student representatives appointed by GSA, and ex-officio members. Membership consists of 18 faculty members, 2 from each academic college and the University Libraries. They serve in staggered 3-year terms. The 2 graduate student representatives are appointed by GSA each year, typically from different graduate programs. In addition, there are several ex-officio, non-voting members, including representatives from Continuing Education, Admissions, the Office of the Registrar, Student Services, and The Graduate School. The Council meets regularly on Friday mornings and the meetings are open for anyone to attend. The Council welcomes input from current graduate students.

The Graduate Council has two subcommittees: Policy and Curriculum. The Policy Subcommittee creates policies and standards for graduate education. The Curriculum Subcommittee reviews all course changes and new course or program proposals. One graduate student serves on each of these committees as a voting member of that committee and Graduate Council.

If you would like to participate as a student representative on Graduate Council

please contact GSA or The Graduate School.
Academic Governance

Website link

The University Academic Senate (UAS) is the highest faculty governance body at GVSU. It has the authority to deal with any academic issue or faculty concern. UAS makes recommendations to the Provost and/or the President of the University. Senate membership consists of faculty members elected from and by the faculty of each college and the University Libraries, and undergraduate and graduate students selected by the Student Senate. The Provost, and designees, and the Deans are ex-officio, non-voting members.

The Executive Committee of the Senate (ECS) serves as the clearinghouse for matters to be presented to the UAS. ECS membership consists of faculty senators from academic colleges and the University Libraries, the Student Senate President, and the Provost, ex-officio, non-voting.

Standing committees which report to the UAS via ECS include the Academic Policies and Standards Committee, the Faculty Facilities Planning Advisory Committee, the Faculty Personnel Policy Committee, the Faculty Salary and Budget Committee, the Pew Faculty Teaching and Learning Center Advisory Committee, the Graduate Council, the University Assessment Committee, and the University Curriculum Committee. The General Education Subcommittee is a standing committee which reports to the University Curriculum Committee. The composition of each committee is described in the Senate Bylaws and always includes elected college and University Libraries representatives.

Details regarding membership, responsibilities, and rules of procedure are given in the UAS Bylaws which are incorporated into the Faculty Handbook.

Dean of The Graduate School

Website link

Phone: 616-331-7105
Location: 310C DeVos Building C, third floor

The Dean of The Graduate School’s role is to advocate for all graduate students and to ensure the quality of graduate education. The current Dean is Dr. Jeffrey A. Potteiger. The Dean is present at many university events and ceremonies that include graduate students. The Dean of The Graduate School is a member of the Provost’s Cabinet, is an ex officio (non-voting) member of Graduate Council, chairs the Graduate Program Directors meetings, and is involved with GSA. The Dean of The Graduate School oversees all aspects of The Graduate School and enforces graduate education policy.

Graduate Student Celebration and Dean’s Citations for Academic Excellence

The Graduate School hosts an end of semester celebration following the fall and winter semesters. All graduate students are invited to attend the Graduate Student Celebration (look for announcements on Blackboard). The Dean also presents the Dean’s Citation Awards for Academic Excellence at these ceremonies. These awards include university-wide recognition in these areas: 1) Excellence in the Degree Program, 2) Outstanding Doctoral Dissertation, 3) Outstanding Master’s Thesis, 4) Outstanding Final Project, 5) Outstanding Publication, 6) Excellence in Community and Professional Service, 7) Excellence in Leadership and Service to GVSU, 8) Excellence in Promoting Diversity and Inclusion at GVSU, and 9) Excellence in Sustainability.
Graduate Showcase: Education for the Future
The Graduate School co-sponsors the annual Graduate Showcase event with the Center for Scholarly and Creative Excellence. This event highlights exceptional work done by graduate students by featuring graduate poster presentations on a wide variety of research and scholarly activities. Typically, a keynote presenter is also invited to speak on a contemporary topic in graduate research and scholarship. All graduate students are invited to attend, and students interested in presenting should contact their Graduate Program Director. More information can be found here Graduate Showcase website.

6 in 60: The Graduate School Newsletter
Each month, The Graduate School distributes an electronic newsletter highlighting graduate education activities at GVSU, including the PACES program workshops, GSA news and events, Graduate Education in the news, and resources for graduate students and faculty. The newsletter is distributed via Blackboard and email to all graduate students.

3-Minute Thesis Competition
The 3-Minute Thesis® (3MT) competition provides a unique opportunity to share your work with the broader community in a fun and exciting format. The Graduate School calls for submissions for graduate students to present their research in just 3 minutes with the aid of a single slide. The GVSU competition awards first, second, and third place as well as a People’s Choice award. The first place winner of GVSU’s 3MT receives full funding to represent GVSU at the Midwest Association of Graduate Schools (MAGS) 3MT® competition.
GRADUATE STUDENT BLUEPRINT:
THE WHAT, WHEN, AND WHERE OF GRADUATE STUDENT SUCCESS

GETTING STARTED

In the early stages of your graduate program, you will focus on adjusting to your new schedule and familiarizing yourself with graduate resources. Your advisor will help you sequence your courses so that you have a clear plan to guide your graduate studies. Network with other students and embrace graduate life by attending events sponsored by the Graduate Student Association and more!

Resources:
- Virtual Graduate Student Orientation
- Graduate Student Guidebook
- The Graduate School Website
- Faculty and Program Directors
- Graduate Student Association

Action Items:
- Attend New Graduate Student Orientation
- Meet with your advisor to review program requirements and chart course path
- Attend Graduate Student Association events to connect with other graduate students from every discipline

EARLY MIDDLE

These action items generally occupy the first 33-66% of your graduate program, or after your first semester has passed. At this point, you’ll want to focus on choosing an internship or co-op placement, building your professional skill set, exploring funding opportunities for research, and finding a faculty mentor.

Resources:
- Faculty and Program Directors
- PACES online resources
- Graduate Presidential Research Grant Program
- Library Research Resources
- Office of Fellowships
- Writing Center
MIDDLE LATE

Action Items:
- Complete internships
- Publish articles and research
- Finalize resume, portfolio and cover letter
- Meet with Career Center
- Attend workshops and conferences to network with professionals in the field
- Register for capstone course/experience.

These action items generally occupy the last third of your program. During this time, you will focus on gaining more professional experience and connections within your field. You may focus on publishing articles or research, or continue doing in-field internships to grow your skillset.

Resources:
- Academic Conference Fund
- Faculty and Program Directors
- PACES online resources and workshops
- GVSU Career Center
- Internship or Co-op Director

READY TO GRADUATE

Now that you have your academic training, it is time to focus on what comes next. You’ll want to meet frequently with your mentors and academic advisors to discuss career options and the job search process.

Action Items:
- Submit application to graduate
- Create a student loan repayment schedule
- Complete final thesis or research presentations
- Discuss career opportunities with advisors and mentors
- Attend networking events on and off campus
- Attend graduation ceremony
