Transform Learning using Technology Syllabus

Course Title: Transform Learning using Technology

Course Description: This interactive session is designed to allow time to prepare lessons that you can use immediately in your classroom. Use a variety of technology tools to transform your learning environment. Create engaging lessons by infusing technology that will challenge your students.

Credits: 1

Faculty/Instructor: Nancy McSkimming

Instructional Method: Lecture/Discussion
                        Computer Lab (if no personal laptop is available)

Required Text/References: Please bring a personal laptop/IPad, if possible.

Course Objectives:
Participants will use an extensive menu of technology tools to create challenging lessons with emphasis on transforming the learning environment.

Course Content/Topics/Outline:

1) Instructional transformation; what does that look like in a classroom?

2) Creating project based lessons utilizing technology resources as a tool.

3) Providing a balance for individual and collaborative learning opportunities for students.

4) Utilizing a menu of varied resource tools to use right away in your classrooms.

Evaluation Methods:
Participation in small and whole group activities/discussions
Portfolio of activities and mini lessons created for your classroom