The Time Is NOW!

But....Where do I start??

SASC Academic Support Services

How can students make the most out of our academic support resources?

By not being afraid to ask for help! Learning to learn and study outside of the classroom is different and we can help you!

Tutoring and Academic Support Services are FREE and open to all students

TUTORING:

- Scheduled Sessions in 200 STU
 - Most 100/200 level courses
 - Small group setting
- Walk-In Tutoring
 - Engineering
 - Math and Statistics
 - Chemistry
 - Biomedical Sciences, Biology and Physics (see www.gvsu.edu/TC for locations)

Bookmark: www.gvsu.edu/tc

Additional Academic Support Services - The Knowledge Market -

- The Frederick Meijer Center for Writing and Michigan Authors
 - 120 Lake Ontario Hall
 - www.gvsu.edu/wc
- The GVSU Speech Lab
 - 154 Lake Michigan Hall and the Knowledge Market
 - www.gvsu.edu/speechlab
- The Data Inquiry Lab
 - The Knowledge Market/Mary Idema Pew Library
 - www.gvsu.edu/datainquirylab
- The Office of Undergraduate Research (OURS)
 - Mary Idema Pew Library
 - www.gvsu.edu/ours

Disability Support Resources (DSR)

Where: 4015 James Zumberge Hall (JHZ)

Phone: (616) 331-2490 Email: dsrgvsu.gvsu.edu

Web: http://www.gvsu.edu/dsr/

Resources and Services

- Alternative test taking
- Note taking assistance
- Assistive technology
- Alternative format textbooks
- Study skills assessment
- Housing
- Career exploration and development
- New mentor residential program Campus Links supporting students with ASD

Registration with DSR has four main components:

- 1) Complete DSR application at www.gvsu.edu/dsr.
- 2) Submit appropriate medical or psychological-educational documentation.
- 3) Scheduling an appointment to discuss your accommodation needs with a DSR advisor. Share accommodation memo/letter with other university personnel as appropriate.
- 4) For assistance obtaining sufficient documentation, please review the relevant guidelines for documentation and verification forms. Forms can be downloaded at www.gvsu.edu/dsr or picked up from the DSR office.

Registration with DSR prior to situations requiring accommodations is essential

Ask Questions!

- Your Professors visit them during office hours!
 Check your syllabus for days, times and locations.
- Advising Centers there's one for EVERY major! Check www.gvsu.edu/advising to find out where to go for your area of study.
- ► Tutoring check www.gvsu.edu/tc for all the locations/days/times. Start now! Don't wait!

