Meet Your Advisor!

TRENTON BEAMON

Trenton is native to Kalamazoo and relocated to Grand Rapids in 2013 to attend GVSU. He earned a bachelor's degree in sports management and a master's in college student affairs leadership. As an undergrad at GVSU he participated in intramural sports, a brother of AKPsi business fraternity, served as a resident assistant and tutored for Grand Rapids Public Schools. He started his higher education professional career as a graduate assistant in the LAKER Academic Success Center advising students-athletes and coordinating freshman life skills programs. Since then, he has gained experience in mentoring student social justice groups, advising military students and facilitating study skills courses. He is passionate about helping students recognize their potential and discover their educational interests. In his free time, he loves to cycle, try new restaurants in GR and spend time with family/friends.

Become a CECI Fellows Today!

As we start this new semester, you might be interested in being a buddy or finding one with our CECI Fellows Peer Mentor Program. Our CECI Fellowship mentor program is here to guide you through every step.

All Mentees are paired with a CECI Fellows Mentor through a sensitive match-making process. When matching you with a peer mentor, we consider things like academic program, hometown/home region, and areas of interest/future career goals. Mentors and mentees are supported by a team of professionals in the CECI Office of Undergraduate Advising to ensure the most positive and productive relationships.

Check out our new CECI Fellows Resources page to see up-coming programming!

To learn more, please feel free to email Melanie Rabine-Johnson, our Retention Specialist and peer mentor program director.
