

What is SHAPE Camp?

It is a week long camp that is geared toward 8th and 9th graders in Grand Rapids. The goal of the camp is to provide attendees with an opportunity to learn more about the health professions. Volunteers help students learn about physical therapy through various activities.

When in the program is this opportunity available?

SHAPE Camp is held at the end of the summer semester.

Who can participate?

2nd year GVSU DPT students.

Students must be in good academic standing to be eligible to participate.

Where does this opportunity take place?

Cook-DeVos Center for Health Sciences (CHS)

What is the average time commitment for this opportunity?

It is a one time commitment that lasts approximately 3-4 hours.

Who is the best person to contact to obtain more information on this opportunity?

Laurie Stickler sticklel@gvsu.edu

Does this opportunity cost anything to the student(s)?

No, there is no monetary cost to students.