

Master's of Public Health - MPH

- Convenient location in downtown Grand Rapids
- Fully Accredited by the Council on Education for Public Health (CEPH)
- 48 credits = Complete your degree in 20 months
- No specific undergraduate degree or pre-requisites required
- 2 distinct emphasis areas in Epidemiology and Health Promotion
- Community based learning in every course throughout the curriculum
- Face-to-Face and Weekend Hybrid delivery options available
- Global and domestic field practicum placement options
- Networking support through local, state, and national organizations through faculty involvement and program partnerships
- Full-time, tenure track faculty with varied specialty areas from gerontology to genetics
- Faculty disseminate research at the local, state, federal and international levels
- GVSU MPH Alumni employed at high level organizations with excellent job placement rates
- All students complete individualized mentorship and research assistance via faculty
- GA positions available
- Study abroad trips offered to exciting locations such as Africa, Greece, and Costa Rica
- Applications accepted annually November 1- March 1st with a new cohort starting each fall
- 60 students accepted annually

Now recruiting the 2021 cohort!

Learn more at: [www.gvsu.edu/
grad/mph](http://www.gvsu.edu/grad/mph)

Learn more attending a virtual open house with Department Chair Dr. Ranelle Brew

