

Certificate in Applied Anthropology

Student Guide

Application process (Applications accepted on October 15 or March 15 each year)

Identify interest in applied work

Identify faculty member with similar interests

Meet with faculty to discuss interests

Work with faculty mentor on application

Submit application for program

Certificate in Applied Anthropology Program

Regular meetings with mentor

- Discuss learning goals
- Supervision of internship
- Career planning for next steps

Complete Required Courses

- ANT 400
- ANT 490
- ANT 420
- Approved Elective

Networking

- Attend CAA events
- Receive SfAA membership
- Consider public presentations

Internship (see student guide for ANT 490 Internships for more details)

Identify possible internships in alignment with applied interest

Arrange a meeting between faculty mentor and site supervisor

Complete a Work Plan & 490 form with mentor / submit to department office

Register for ANT 490

Complete Internship requirements

Graduating with Certificate in Applied Anthropology

Final semester of program

Meet with Mentor to review all requirements, integrate skills into resume, and discuss career plans

Submit application for Certificate to Audit@gvsu.edu ensures CAA is added to transcript

Meet with Mentor to receive graduation cords and paper certificate

Questions? Contact Dr. Kristin Hedges hedgeskr@gvsu.edu / LMH 226a / 616-331-2325