

Classical Languages Emphasis

At Grand Valley and nationally, most Classics majors take both ancient Greek and Latin. The Classical Languages emphasis provides the flexibility to pursue both languages within one major.

All Classics majors complete required courses in the Language Core and the Cultural Core and take the senior Capstone.* Majors with a Classical Languages emphasis will also complete a minimum of 20 additional hours of Greek and Latin, with at least 6 hours in one language at the 300 level or above, and at least six hours in the other language (at any level).

Students interested in graduate studies in Classics should plan on attaining advanced levels in both languages.

The following sample curriculum plans illustrate some of the many ways in which the requirements for the emphasis may be completed.
