What do I need to know about applying to CMU CMED?

Like most medical schools, CMU CMED uses AMCAS as their application server:
<http://www.aamc.org/students/amcas/start.htm>

Applicants with a minimum of a 24 MCAT score (498 New MCAT Test Score) and a 3.25 GPA will be invited to complete a secondary application, which will include questions that address how students contribute to diversity, why they want to attend CMU CMED, and how they can demonstrate a commitment to mid/upper Michigan.

CMU CMED uses a Multiple-Mini Interview (MMI) format. There are 11 stations focused on teamwork, ethical and moral dilemmas.

Three to five letters of recommendation are required for admission to CMU CMED. Each letter should be written by an author who is known through a professional relationship, and must have firsthand knowledge of the candidate's qualifications, skills, attributes, and values. Authors must be professionals whose background enables them to determine the applicant's qualifications. If students apply from a university that provides a composite (committee) letter from a premedical program, the composite (committee) letter will be accepted.

All eligible U.S. and Canadian applications will be considered. CMED intends to have 80% in-state enrollment and 20% out-of-state enrollment.

Tuition for 2015-2016 is $38,522 (in-state).

What is it like to be a CMED student?

As a medical student you will learn medicine in a high-technology environment including a state-of-the-art simulation center. You will begin your journey working with classmates in small team-based groups, in the classroom, on-line and in physician offices across central and northern Michigan. If you are highly motivated, interested in a groundbreaking experience in a top-quality, high-energy medical school, then CMED is for you.

The curriculum at CMED is an innovative educational program focused on team-based education as well as on serving the needs of the community. Central Michigan University's curriculum emphasizes early clinical experiences and small group learning. The first two years are organized around physiological systems starting with the Foundational Sciences in Medicine.

In addition to clinical work in the community, a state-of-the-art simulation center offers students with an opportunity to practice interviewing, physical examination and diagnostic skills. During the clinical years all students participate in an eight month community-based longitudinal integrated clerkship in addition to the core discipline clerkships, hospital based rotations and electives.
