For students NOT YET admitted to the major:

In order to become a Studio Arts major in Visual and Media Arts, you must apply for and participate in an admission review with the Department of Visual and Media Arts. The application can be found online at <https://www.gvsu.edu/vma/apply-studio-art-and-art-education-12.htm>. See below for details about creating a portfolio for the admission review.

If you HAVE an art portfolio, contact the Department of Visual and Media Arts at 616-331-3486 to sign up for a portfolio review session BEFORE beginning your first semester.

If you need to build an art portfolio, take the three recommended foundation courses in your first semester and sign up for a portfolio review by contacting the Visual and Media Arts office staff to register for a date at 616-331-3486.

For more details on the portfolio review please see <https://www.gvsu.edu/vma/apply-studio-art-and-art-education-12.htm>.

For students ADMITTED to the major:

Register for the foundation courses (FALL and WINTER) recommended via email by the Department of Visual and Media Arts following your portfolio review (see sample schedule above); check in myPath to see if your major is declared. The Department of Visual and Media Arts declares your major for you following your portfolio review and admittance to the program.
