

College of Liberal Arts and Sciences

Teaching Majors and Minors

General Elementary Certificate

(requires second major in Education)

Teaching Major	Teaching Minor

Integrated Science
Language Arts
Mathematics
Social Studies

Elementary Certification

Mathematics*

*The mathematics minor and applied linguistics-ESL minor can be done in addition to the elementary certification minor, but not as a replacement for it.

Spanish – Elementary Certification

Students interested in teaching Spanish at the elementary level or teaching in a Spanish immersion program should follow the requirements for the Comprehensive Science and Arts for Teaching major with a second major in Education and a minor in Spanish for Elementary Teaching.

Special Education (K-12)

Students interested in pursuing Special Education certification should follow the requirements for the Comprehensive Science and Arts for Teaching major and a second major in Special Education.

ESL – Elementary Certification

Students interested in teaching ESL at the elementary level should follow the requirements for the Comprehensive Science and Arts for Teaching major with a second major in Education and a minor in Applied Linguistics-ESL.

Early Childhood Education

Students interested in the early childhood program should follow the requirements for the Comprehensive Science and Arts for Teaching major with a second major in Education and a minor in Early Childhood.

General Secondary Certificate

(requires second major in Education)

Teaching Major	Teaching Minor

Art Education (K-12) (no minor needed)

Biology

Chemistry

Earth Science

English

French

German

History

Integrated Science (no minor needed)

Latin

Mathematics

Music (K-12) (no minor needed)

Phys Ed (K-12)

Physics

Social Studies (no minor needed)

Spanish

Applied Linguistics–ESL

Biology

Chemistry

Earth Science

Economics

English

French

Geography

German

History

Mathematics

Phys Ed

Physics

Political Science

Psychology

School Health Ed

Spanish