

Spring 2014 Juvenile Justice Vision 20/20 Training Event

Sexting, Cyberbullying, and Risk Taking Behavior Online

Session #1: Thursday, May 8, 2014 9:00am-12:00pm

Presented By: Detective Kerri Cannata

Ottawa County Sheriff's Office

Kerri Cannata is a Detective with the Ottawa County Sheriff's Office. She has been with the Sheriff's Office since 2001 and was promoted to Detective in 2007. She is a member of the Michigan Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force and in April 2009 she received her Certified Forensic Computer Examiner certification through the International Association of Computer Investigative Specialists (IACIS). In addition to being a member of IACIS, Detective Cannata is also a member of the High Technology Crime Investigation Association and is one of the Regional Information Coordinators for Michigan's Homeland Security Region 6.

Detective Cannata has been involved in numerous Internet/computer based investigations and has conducted hundreds of examinations of digital media. She has assisted several Local, State and Federal agencies in investigations involving digital media and has testified as an expert in both State and Federal court. In addition to digital forensic investigations Detective Cannata is an independent instructor for the National White Collar Crime Center and has been involved in several training sessions for law enforcement. She has also presented to various groups including County Administrators, Schools, Department of Human Services and the Michigan Chapter of the National Children's Alliance.

Presented By: Nic Bottomley, LMSW

Adolescent Sex Offender Treatment Program Therapist

17th Circuit Court, Family Division

Nic Bottomley has been a probation officer and therapist with the 17th Circuit Court, Family Division beginning in 2001. He has held positions as community probation officer and consent calendar probation officer prior to his current position as therapist in the Adolescent Sexual Offender Treatment Program (ASOTP) since 2003. Nic also works providing treatment on an outpatient basis for adult male sexual offenders on contract with the Michigan Department of Corrections and is an adjunct faculty with the Grand Valley State University School of Social Work. Nic holds a clinical license as a Master's Social Worker with the State of Michigan and is a clinical member of the Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers (ATSA).

In addition to the above, Nic has presented at multiple conferences, agencies and classes including Community Mental Health, Grand Valley State University School of Criminal Justice, Wraparound, Michigan Conference on the MDT Response to Suspected Child Sexual Assault, the Joint Conference on Juvenile Services and The Systems of Care Conference. Nic has provided testimony to the State Senate & House Judiciary Committees, participated in a state level work group and continues to meet with legislators to discuss the impact of substantial compliance with the Sexual Offender Registration and Notification Act on juvenile offenders.

Workshop Overview:

In today's digital age kids are on the cutting edge of technology while many adults are continually trying to catch up. It is important for us all to understand what is going on in cyber space in order to protect our children online. This presentation will cover the rapid growth of technology, the risks kids face online and what we can do to help kids avoid these risks.

Spring 2014 Juvenile Justice Vision 20/20 Training Event

Evidence Based Treatment Options for Children and Adolescents Who Have Experienced Trauma

Session #2: Thursday, May 8, 2014 1:30pm-4:30pm

Presented By: Caelan Kuban, PsyD, LMSW, CTC-S

Director, The National Institute for Trauma and Loss in Children

Caelan Kuban is Director of The National Institute for Trauma and Loss in Children (TLC), a program of the Starr Institute for Training. Caelan provides training across the country to professionals working with traumatized children and families; she has been called an excellent teacher and passionate trainer providing workshops where participants leave feeling energized and inspired to work with at-risk and traumatized youth.

Workshop Overview

For youth in the juvenile justice system, prevalence of trauma experiences is substantially higher than for non-adjudicated youth. The occurrence of complex cumulative trauma is frequently reported. This presentation will discuss the strong connection between trauma experience, emotional dysregulation and delinquency. Results of two studies using the evidence based researched trauma intervention program, SITCAP-ART (Structured Sensory Interventions for At Risk and Adjudicated Youth), that documented how short term trauma intervention can result in long-term gains and reduction of recidivism rates will be shared. Several case examples and intervention strategies will be presented.

Safety and Security for Juvenile Justice Professionals

Session #3: Friday, May 9, 9:00am-12:00pm

Presented By: Brian R. Johnson, Ph.D.

Professor, Grand Valley State University, School of Criminal Justice

Dr. Brian Johnson is a full Professor and Undergraduate Coordinator in the School of Criminal Justice at Grand Valley State University. He holds a Ph.D., in Social Sciences with cognates in Criminal Justice, Labor Relations, and Sociology/Organizational Behavior, from Michigan State University. He also holds a Masters of Labor and Industrial Relations, from Michigan State University, a M.S., in Criminal Justice, from Michigan State University, and a B.A., Criminal Justice from the University of Wisconsin.

Dr. Johnson 's has a variety of research interests, including: security, security management, labor relations and policing, just to name a few. His most recent book entitled, "Safe Overseas Travel" addresses the many security issues that keep people safe as they travel. Dr. Johnson has taught a range of courses including: Justice and Society, Criminology, Police Process, Principles of Security, Police Management and Legal Issues, Security Administration and Legal Issues, Advanced Police Systems, and Advanced Private Security just to name a few. Dr. Johnson was recent recognition for his research at GVSU and presented the CCPS Outstanding Scholar in the Discipline Award. As a leading expert in the field of security, Dr. Johnson has been invited and lectured to innumerable groups both locally and nationally.

Workshop Overview

In the course of one's responsibilities, safety and security-related issues can arise in and outside of the workplace. Specific issues that will be addressed in this training include identifying specific threats for juvenile court staff and the development of specific strategies and practices to enhance and ensure personal security in the workplace and field settings.