

ANTICIPATION REACTION GUIDE

Your Answer

Correct
Answer

_____	1. Delinquent girls come from more disorganized and socially less adequate families than delinquent boys.	1 _____
_____	2. A number of researchers have noted that families of delinquent girls appear to be more dysfunctional and that the impact of disruption [on dysfunctional families] seems to be of greater significance for girls.	2 _____
_____	3. Several studies have shown that there is a greater frequency of broken homes and family disruption for female delinquents than for male delinquents	3 _____
_____	4. For girls, the families of delinquents were characterized by: multiple parental disabilities, parental criminal history, parental psychopathology, parental rejection, substance abuse, and lack of family cohesion, when compared with families in the control group.	4 _____
_____	5. Studies on the relationship between delinquent girls and their parents have shown that they have: more negative controls than boys; higher rates of conflict, hostility, and ambivalence than those of boys with their mothers; fathers of delinquent girls were rated as more "neurotic and dominant" than the parents of the control group, and families were more dysfunctional than those of male delinquents.	5 _____
_____	6. Abuse or neglect in childhood increased the likelihood of arrest for female by 77% over comparison group of females.	6 _____
_____	7. The percentage of delinquent females who have reported sexual abuse is 50.1% as compared to 1.8% of males.	7 _____

WORKING MODELS

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

6.

RULES OF LIVING

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

6.