
Juvenile Justice Vision 20/20 in partnership with the Michigan Judicial Institute present:

“A Practitioner’s Guide to Reconnecting with Youth, Families, and Community in Uncertain Times”

December 1, 2022
1:30—3:30 p.m.

As times become increasingly uncertain, we are excited to bring back Rick Miller, Founder of Kids at Hope and The Intersection Construct, and Professor of Practice, Arizona State University, Center for the Advanced Study & Practice of Hope, to offer a holistic approach to individual and familial stabilization. Rick will offer in-depth, critical strategies to help us and those with whom we work, navigate life and assist the youth and families served by the juvenile justice system.

Please mark your calendars and join us!

Cost: Free

Registration: https://miscas-sc.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_vz31vUn8TKumkFkIU-ZIQg

CEUs will be available at: <https://www.gvsu.edu/juvenilejusticevision2020/>

JUVENILE JUSTICE
VISION 20/20

