Rick Eaton is the Director of Research at the Simon Wiesenthal Center (SWC) in Los Angeles. As Co-Director of the Center’s Digital Terrorism and Hate Project, he has supervised the production of all 25 editions of the Digital Terrorism and Hate interactive report. Rick regularly meets with Facebook, Twitter, Google/YouTube, TikTok, Roblox, and other social networking companies to give feedback and assist in shaping policy. He has worked extensively with California P.O.S.T. (Peace Officer Standards and Training) and been a subject-matter expert on educational “Tele-Courses” produced by P.O.S.T. and the U.S. Department of Homeland Security. Rick has testified in Congressional hearings and conducted staff briefings on Capitol Hill. In an undercover role, he has met many leading white supremacists, militia figures, Islamic extremists, and helped expose Nazis in Argentina. In his 37 years with SWC, Rick has conducted hundreds of training sessions with law-enforcement, educators, civic groups, and schools. He deeply understands hate groups, the effectiveness of social media in their recruitment and expansion and of violent extremism, radicalization of young people, and strategies to stop the “new era of hate.”

Mr. Smith has devoted his professional career to helping youth get out of gangs, and, he has employed multiple prevention techniques to keep youth out of gangs by understanding their needs and what it takes to create resilience and resistance to the temptations on the street. A professional with great energy, expertise to share, and a story to tell, we are honored to have him share his story and insights with us.

11:15 – 11:55 a.m. Café Momentum – A Very Special Viewing & How You Can Join Them

“Eat. Drink. Change Lives.”

As featured on 60 Minutes and other media outlets for its success with juvenile justice-involved youth, this remarkable program will urge all of us to approach justice-involved youth in a more creative, effective manner!

Café Momentum’s mission is to transform young lives by equipping a community’s most at-risk youth with life skills, education, and employment opportunities to help them achieve their full potential. Working alongside the Juvenile Justice Department and local community partners, Café Momentum strives to teach our country’s youth that it is possible to break the cycle of incarceration and violence many of our youth have faced. The Café Momentum Model focuses on creating safe environments for youth, ages 15-19, where the kids can gain self-confidence and learn marketable skills to ensure a more successful future.

Please join us for this special sharing of the Café Momentum Model and learn about an opportunity to partner with Café Momentum in your community with its help or just be inspired!!
