

Agreement Form for Recording Lectures

Under Section 504, Subpart E Postsecondary Education, of the 1973 Rehabilitation Act and the Americans with Disabilities Act, institutions of higher education must provide reasonable accommodations to a student's known disability and may not deny equal access to the institution's programs, courses, and activities. Recording lectures is a reasonable accommodation for students whose documentation calls for this accommodation.

Faculty have the right to require a student who uses a recorder to sign an agreement for recording and present the form to the instructor.

I, _____, agree that I will

(student's name)

not release the recordings, or transcription, or otherwise

hinder _____

(professor's/instructor's name)

ability to obtain a copyright on lectures that I have taped in (department, course number, and title)

(student's signature)

This form is to be submitted to the professor/instructor upon completion.
