

Bucket List Scavenger Hunt

Robert C. Pew Grand Rapids Campus Edition

START

Explore Richard M. DeVos Center Main Hub (C-Building)

The C building is a beautiful space to sit, relax, gather information, shop, and grab food or a drink. Grab a drink from Starbucks before you begin exploring. Purchase laker gear at the University Bookstore. Find the Student Services Office. Grab food from the Plaza Café or Ebert's and Gerbert's.

Visit the Steelcase Library

Located in Building A of the DeVos Center the library is equal parts traditional library and technologically advanced learning environment.

View all types of art around the Pew Campus

Stop and admire the various pieces of art inside and outside every building. Building D of the DeVos Center has its walls covered in art.

Find parking services

Located on the first floor of the L.V. Eberhard Center, parking services can help with all parking pass needs. Drive a different car to work? No problem, stop by and they will be able to assist!

Explore the second floor of the L.V. Eberhard Center

Home to the Grand Rapids Press Teleconference Auditorium, Paul A. Johnson Conference Hall, Multi-Purpose Room, and the West Wall Gallery.

Experience the view from the L.V. Eberhard Center

Any floor of the Eberhard Center provides a spectacular view of the Grand River and Grand Rapids skyline.

Use the sky-walk to walk between the Eberhard Center and the Kennedy Hall of Engineering

Located on the 3rd floor you can walk between the buildings without walking outside. Quick, easy, and a cool way to get from building to building.

Visit John C. Kennedy Hall of Engineering

Built in 2007 the Kennedy Hall of Engineering has many notable architectural features. Outside you will see the Vee columns that support two floors of occupied space. Inside you will see terrazzo tile throughout the first-floor lobby.

Visit Fred M. Keller Engineering Laboratories

Connected to the Kennedy Hall of Engineering, home to 15 specialized labs.

Visit L. William Seidman College of Business

Just inside the main entrance, stock market changes scroll across a stock tick mounted high on the wall. You will find the Charles W. Loosemore Forum, a beautiful multi-purpose space, with seating for up to 200 guests.

Visit the Michigan Small Business Development Center

Just steps inside the Seidman College of Business, SBDC provides a full range of services to growing businesses across Michigan.

Visit the Gary L. Tilkin Financial Market Center

Located on the second floor of Seidman in Room 2011, the financial market center, or trading center, offers business students hands-on experience working with nine Bloomberg terminals.

Enjoy the view from the Richard and Helen DeVos Board Room

Located on the fourth floor of the Seidman building, The Board Room, which has two walls of glass and a desk to seat 30 people, provides a bird's-eye view of downtown and the Pew Campus.

Enjoy both courtyard areas

Located on both floors of the Seidman College of Business you will find a beautiful courtyard. It is the perfect place to eat, meet with colleagues, or relax.

Visit the Bicycle Factory

Located on the south edge of campus. It sits on the historical site of the Grand Rapids Bicycle Factory which burned to the ground in 2007. GVSU occupies the first 2 floors with 9 conference rooms and 2 special purpose labs, it is the ideal spot for training.

Walk across the Blue Bridge

Just outside of the Eberhard Center, take the blue pedestrian bridge to explore downtown Grand Rapids.

Take a selfie on the Blue Bridge

This is a must for everyone exploring downtown Grand Rapids. Send your selfie to hrintern@gvsu.edu to be featured on the New Hire Resource page or the Human Resources social media page.
