How to Add a User Account to a Computer in Windows 8

- On your desktop click on Manage User Login Ability, click yes on the dialogue box that appears, and then click on Administrators.

- Click Add in the dialogue box that appears. Then under “Enter the object names to select:” type in the username of the user that is being granted access and press enter.