

HST 37I

History of European Women

Winter 2027 - Grace Coolidge

Tuesdays & Thursdays,
10-11:15 a.m.

When did women start working outside the home? Why was the term "feminism" created? Did women have a "sisterhood?" How did women and ideas about gender shape major aspects of European history? This course answers these questions and more.

Pictured left to right: Queen Elizabeth II, members of the Women's Royal Naval Service, Olympic sprinter Rhasidat Adeleke, Irish President Connolly