Grand Valley State University Visiting Assistant Professorship, 2019-2020 History of Medicine, History of Science, World History and American History

The Department of History at Grand Valley State University invites applications for full-time Visiting (non-tenure-track) appointments for the 2019-2020 academic year, with the possibility for renewal, at the rank of Visiting Assistant Professor (or at the rank of Visiting Instructor if ABD). The teaching load of four courses per semester will include upper division courses in History of Medicine and Health and surveys in History of Science, World History and American History. Grand Valley State University is an affirmative action and equal opportunity institution. The Department is especially interested in qualified candidates who can contribute to the intellectual diversity and excellence of the academic community.

Interested candidates are asked to submit via email or post a letter of application, teaching materials (examples include statement of teaching philosophy, syllabi, assignments) and curriculum vitae, followed by three letters of reference and a transcript, to:

Dr. William Morison, Chair
Department of History
Grand Valley State University
MAK D-1-220
Allendale, Michigan 49401-9403
