January 22, 2021 - TRIO STEM News

A new semester and a new year.
This is the year of many beginnings and hope.
Hope for health.
Hope for change.
Hope to go back to an in-person campus.

From our Sneak Preview

Our Financial Literacy and Career Events are going to be presented twice! Yes, two times. We will be hosting events on Mondays from 12:00pm-1:00pm and again on Tuesdays from 4:00pm-5:00pm per your poll responses. This should allow more students to take advantage of these great programs.

Our Monday and Tuesday events will be hybrid. Ten students will be able to join in-person at 200 Lubbers Student Services Building and everyone else will attend virtually.

iGrad is our new financial literacy tool. Programs using this tool should be attended by all first-year students. However, all students are welcome to join us.

We are teaming up with the Academic Success Center to offer four virtual workshops: Time Management, Stress Management, Motivation and Procrastination and Virtual Exams Study Tips.

NEW SCHOLARSHIP - Racial Equity Scholarship has been added to myScholarships. This is a $10,000 scholarship and we will award 2 students – one graduate student and one undergraduate student beginning next fall. More information about the details can be found here:
