

2017

FALL SCIENCE UPDATE

INCORPORATING STEM BY DESIGN

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 2017 • 8 A.M.–3 P.M.

GVSU RUSSEL H. KIRKHOF CENTER, ALLENDALE CAMPUS

How can we prepare students to be STEM-literate with the ability to apply STEM concepts to understand real world problems and generate innovative solutions? Keynote speakers, Ebiri Nkugba and Rick Mushing, Kent ISD STEM consultants, share how to use the Michigan Science Standards in collaboration with area business and industry partners to prepare students for their futures.

- UPDATES ON THE MICHIGAN SCIENCE STANDARDS AND ASSESSMENTS
- BREAKOUT SESSIONS IN SCIENCE, ENGINEERING, TECHNOLOGY, AND BEST PRACTICES
- LUNCH INCLUDED

COST

$45 per person

$20 preservice teacher

$10 preservice teacher without lunch

FOR MORE INFORMATION

GVSU Regional Math and Science Center
gvsu.edu/rmsc or (616) 331-2267

Registration will open by early October

