Directing II - Tentative Titles and show information

Am I Blue by Beth Henley
Director: Nicole Buchmann

An offbeat comedy that details the chance meeting of two teenagers, the difficulties of growing up and the attempt to develop individuality.

4 women, 3 men

The Game by Louise Bryant
Director: Robbie Bell

1 woman, 3 any gender

Intermission by Robert Schenkkan
Director: Erin Feiner

A producer and theatrical agent are fighting over who has their actor's best interest at heart while this actor is failing miserably in his role as Richard III. This play depicts the dirty politics in commercial theatre.

1 male, 3 any gender

Midnight Rodeo by Mary Sue Price
Director: Elizabeth Szubinski

A couple is on the cusp of fulfilling their dreams when the unexpected happens. They have discussed what they are going to do and the play starts the morning the decision will be put into action. While one is confident with what they have chosen to do the other is questioning it.

1 woman, 1 man

The {Marriage} Proposal by Anton Chekov
Director: Tony Sanchez

A man attempts to court and propose to the love of his life, only to find out she believes he has stolen something of great value to her. In the comedic one act we explore the needs and boundaries of marriage, love, and property.

1 woman, 2 men

Forget Him by Harvey Fierstein
Director: Alaina Wilson

A play about the pitfalls of a gay man looking for the perfect mate. The main character wants his money back from a dating service that has fixed him up with deaf and blind date. The catch: The main character and the blind/deaf date have been together for four years.

3 Men

TBA Director: Monica Longstreet