

2022 Teach-In	Pew Campus - Richard M. DeVos Center
Wednesday, November 9	Location	Session
10:30 - 11:00 am Recognition of the Native American Advisory Council (NAAC), land acknowledgement and Presidential welcome. (Light Refreshments) 11:00 - 11:50 am Plenary Panel on Activism	Seidman Hall - Forum A & B	Opening Plenary Session - Activism Moderator: Dr. Jesse Bernal, VP for Inclusion & Equity Panelists: Larbi Al Moutaa, Student Senate VP of Diversity Affairs Jessica Jennrich, Director of the Center for Women and Gender Equity Jakia Marie, Assistant Professor of Integrative and African American Studies
12:00 to 12:50 pm	Seidman Hall - Forum A & B	Understanding and Addressing Student, Staff and Faculty Disengagement in Higher Education
1:00 to 1:50 pm	Seidman Hall - Forum A & B HYBRID	A Case of Environmental Injustice in the Southeast Community of Grand Rapids
2:00 to 2:50 pm	Seidman Hall - Forum A & B	Personal and Collective Responsibility: Ally to Accomplice
3:00 to 3:50 pm	DeVos Hall - Loosemore Auditorium	Mindful of Inequity
4:00 to 4:50 pm	DeVos Hall - Loosemore Auditorium HYBRID	Cultural Competence and Ethnic Diversity in Healthcare: Perspectives from Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology
5:00 to 5:50 pm	DeVos Hall - Loosemore Auditorium	Turning Passion Into Action - Undergraduate Research & Advocacy
6:00 to 6:50 pm	CHS 119	Gender and Race: Does Implicit Bias Impact Your Healthcare?
6:00 to 8:30 pm	HYBRID	Sharing Our Stories: Moving from Division to Hope
7:00 to 7:50 pm	CHS 119	The New Interdisciplinary Medical-Environmental Humanities: A Dialogue on Race, Class and Equity
8:00 to 8:50 pm	CHS 119 HYBRID	Striving to meet the needs of all learners: Accommodations enacted in the classroom