

I would love the opportunity to grow my university-level service portfolio and collaborate with colleagues to develop meaningful policies for our students. I have strong research and communication skills, which I think would enable me to be a productive member of the Academic Policies and Standards Committee.

-Jacki Cwick