

I bring almost 20 years of experience at the university, including service on unit personnel committees, the University Faculty Salary and Budget Committee, and six years as Faculty Council Chair. I have worked extensively on academic policy, curriculum, faculty personnel matters, and institutional governance, including service on the college merge committee, and currently serve as a program director. This experience positions me well to contribute thoughtfully to the work of the University Academic Senate.

Elizabeth Stolle