

With a strong commitment to advocating for the well-being of faculty members, I understand the importance of a comprehensive, transparent approach to the university's financial health. I am deeply invested in ensuring that faculty concerns regarding new programs, salary equity, and healthcare benefits are addressed and that the budgetary decisions made at the institutional level reflect the priorities and needs of the academic staff. Thank you for considering my nomination.

-Melissa Villarreal