

Wherever You Are—Is Where You Should Be!

Stop looking around stop looking ahead
The answer sits in the moment.
Wherever you are
Whatever is happening
Is exactly where you should be.

Don't be concerned about finding your purpose
You carry it where you go
It sits in your heart
It is always right there
Just waiting to be connected to the moment.
