

Semester in Detroit: Drop-In Lunch

www.gvsu.edu/semesterindetroit
www.semesterindetroit.com

Grand Valley offers a partnership with the University of Michigan's Semester in Detroit (SID) program. This innovative program is a great fit for students in ANY MAJOR. Offered during the fall semester, the program provides students the opportunity to earn 12-15 undergraduate credits through a rich and unique immersive learning experience, while living in Detroit.

Drop in for Pizza & Information

January 18, 2018

Kirkhof Center; 2201

Anytime 12:00-1:30 P.M.

Learn more about this amazing opportunity from Semester in Detroit Associate Director Craig Regester, and enjoy some FREE pizza, while supplies last.

Why Study in Detroit?

- LIVE in community housing with other students in a dynamic and diverse urban setting .
- LEARN from community leaders, U of M faculty, and personal experience.
- WORK in challenging, creative internships with Detroit community organizations.
- ENGAGE with Detroit's history, experience, people, and promise.

For more information and details how this program can fit into YOUR major, contact:

Jennifer Jameslyn; jameslyj@gvsu.edu

Director, Office of Integrative Learning and Advising;
Brooks College of Interdisciplinary Studies