TRIO Students: How Can You Be Productive This Summer?

Many students believe that, during the summer months, TRIO Educational Talent Search goes on a break. This, however, could not be any farther from the truth.

On the contrary, during the summer months, TRIO Educational Talent Search is still open and willing to help students along their pathway toward college readiness.

Since we are still working to help students go to college, we also encourage you to help yourself go to college during the summer months as well. In this issue of Interactions, we will be giving you different ideas and resources you can use to help you get ahead in the summertime.

Below are just a few examples of what kind of things you can do, and what you can find in this issue:

Things to Do in the Summer

- Join a summer camp/summer program
- Visit college campuses

- Study for the ACT/SAT
- Find a summer job
- Volunteer at a non-profit organization or charity
- Get tutoring for classes in which you might be struggling
- Join a club or sport that keeps you active
- Take part in a job shadow or visit a college class

Remember, your TRIO Educational Talent Search advisor is always ready and willing to help you with any of your college readiness needs. Please feel free to contact him or her at 616-331-7110, or come see us at The Depot: 510 W. Fulton St, Grand Rapids, MI 49504.

We hope you enjoy this issue of Interactions, and find a few useful summer activities that help you achieve your goals.
