

Kutsche Chronicle

The Kutsche Office of Local History is part of Brooks College of Interdisciplinary Studies at Grand Valley State University

Summer 2021

In This Issue

- A new space for the Kutsche Office
- What to expect as GVSU re-opens
- Online offerings
- Keep up with the Kutsche Office

Upcoming Events

July 1, 2021 / Pre-recorded program debut

James Smither on the GVSU Veterans
History Project & women's baseball

July 12 / Pre-recorded program debut

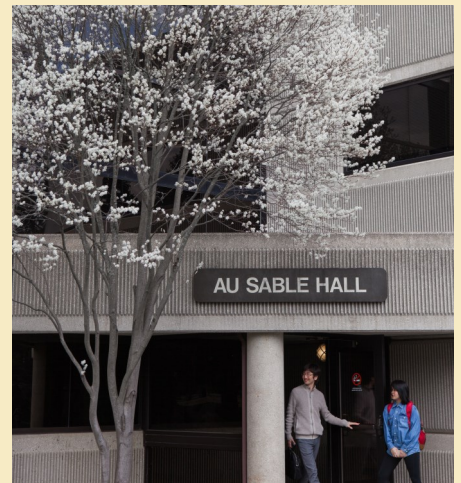

Jan Brashler on anthropology, archaeology, & local history

gvsu.edu/kutsche | 616-331-8099 | kutsche@gvsu.edu

Cover image of Au Sable Hall, courtesy Kendra Stanley-Mills, GVSU Office of Communications.

A New Office in Au Sable Hall

After more than a decade of progress and success, the Kutsche Office of Local History has outgrown our Lake Ontario Hall office space. Like many Lakers, we will spend our summer packing up and moving. Beginning in August 2021, the Kutsche Office will be in room #1114 of Au Sable Hall. Centrally located on GVSU's Allendale campus, Au Sable Hall is situated between the arboretum and Great Lakes Plaza.

Our new office space is larger, equipped with the technology necessary for our Zoom-heavy lives, and has plenty of room to meet one-on-one with community partners, provide quiet work space for our dedicated student employees, and plan our latest projects.

We look forward to seeing you in ASH 1114!

Local History After Lockdown

Your support and patience over the past year was essential to keeping the Kutsche Office going. During this transitional time, there are a few things we do know about the 2021-2022 academic year:

Programs will be a mix of in-person and online

We will return to some in-person programming while adhering to safety measures outlined by GVSU. We will livestream face-to-face events for those who are unable to join in person, and continue creating digital content for everyone to enjoy.

Staff can meet in person on a case-by-case basis

We understand that some things are better shared across a table, and will clearly communicate all safety measures required to visit us on the GVSU campus. Please continue to consider Zoom or phone meetings when possible.

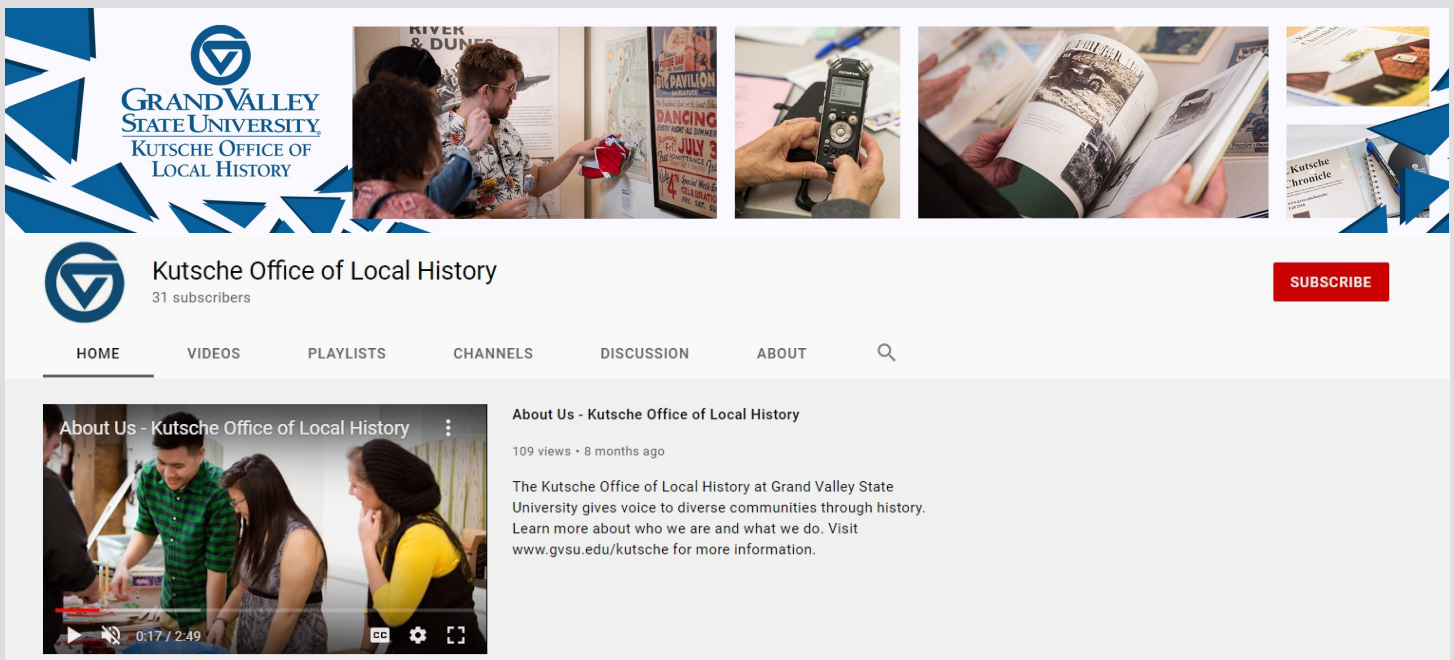

For live updates on GVSU's COVID-19 policies, visit gvsu.edu/LakersTogether

Bring History with You This Summer

After a whirlwind year, the Kutsche Office is taking it slow this summer (and we hope you are, too).

We have two recorded digital talks debuting in July, joining our online catalog of over 40 local history videos from the past year. All of our programs are ready for you to view anywhere, any time. Peruse webinars, tutorials, and catch up on a year of superb talks from local history scholars.

Browse our entire online video catalog at gvsu.edu/kutsche/YouTube

Click over to the “Playlists” tab to see videos organized by themes, such as a collection of oral history tutorials or our full slate of 12th Annual Local History Roundtable programs.

Click the red “Subscribe” button in the top-right corner to receive notifications whenever we upload new videos.