

Foundation: Writing

The study and practice of academic writing integrates a wide network of knowledge and skills, including critical thinking, rhetoric, research, scholarly argument, logic, creativity, and language. The introductory study of college-level academic writing requires students to develop challenging ideas in clear, focused, well-organized writing, using methods and concepts appropriate for further development in a broad range of other college courses.

Knowledge Student Learning Outcomes

Students will:

1. Apply general academic writing conventions for language, development, organization, and format.
2. Engage in the writing process, including invention, planning, organizing, revising, and editing.
3. Apply at least one academic citation and documentation system (such as MLA or APA style).

Skills Student Learning Outcome 1

Graduates are proficient in:

- Written Communication: Write effectively for multiple purposes and audiences.

Skills Student Learning Outcome 2

Graduates are proficient in:

- Information Literacy: Identify the need for information; access, evaluate, and use information effectively, ethically, and legally.