

PAS Program Procedure for Appeals of Action Taken Under PAS Program Disciplinary and Professionalism Review Policy

1. A PAS student may appeal an action taken under the PAS Program Disciplinary and Professionalism Review Policy.
2. If a student is unsatisfied with the PAS program decision, they may appeal to the Dean of the College of Health Professions as outlined in the Graduate Education Policies and Procedures Manual and the University Academic Grievance Student Procedure.
3. If a student is not satisfied with the decision of the Dean of the College of Health Professions, they may appeal to the Provost or the Provost's designee as outlined in the Graduate Education Policies and Procedures Manual and the University Academic Grievance Student Procedure.