PLACEMENT EXAMPLES

PARIS, FRANCE

An International Tourism Start Up

This dynamic start up, founded in the world's first incubator dedicated to tourism, offers a multitude of activities and interactions with other innovative start-ups working in tourism's digital revolution. Working with a young and energetic team, interns have close contact with international travelers and are able to use their communication and language skills to their full potential.

"I feel so much more prepared for the working world, both in France and elsewhere, and I have come out of the internship with a great self-confidence." Junior, EUSA Paris

FLORENCE, ITALY

Hotel Experience in the Heart of Firenze

This hotel is found right in the heart of Florence in the perfect position to reach the convention center, business area and many sightseeing attractions. Interns with this placement will receive training in the Italian hospitality industry and will gain experience in both front of the house and back of the house duties. The more language proficiencies one has, the more diverse the role will be.
