PLACEMENT EXAMPLES

DUBLIN, IRELAND

A Political Internship

At this political representative's office in Dublin, who focuses on culture and heritage, students develop their knowledge of politics in Ireland. Duties included responding to constituency queries, assisting in designing and implementing constituency campaigns, policy research, and office administration.

"It's so cool to work for the Minister and learn so much about politics, both on the national and local levels. Being put in new situations in a new country forced me to dig deep and take the lead on certain projects. -Junior, EUSA Dublin"

SAN JOSE, COSTA RICA

A Humanitarian Aid Organization

This NGO focuses on humanitarian aid and development, specifically in regards to children and their families. The team works in the more vulnerable areas of the country to promote lasting change, transform education, and reduce violence in a childhood and familial setting. Interns will help with the child sponsorship program, work with the urban development program, and build partnerships with other nonprofits and foundations.
