

Global Leadership Certificate

for study abroad / exchange students

Macquarie University's Global Leadership Program (GLP) invites you to build your international knowledge and professional skills during your study abroad experience.

As a Study Abroad or Exchange GLP student you can take advantage of all the opportunities the program has to offer and enjoy interacting with like-minded Australian students.

What do I need to do?

Attend five three-hour colloquia (workshops) and a GLP-approved keynote event of your choosing.

Topics include:

- Leadership
- Cross-Cultural Understanding
- Business Etiquette
- State Failure and Crisis in Sudan and Somalia
- Terrorism and Counter-Terrorism
- Effective Writing
- Career Mapping
- Australia and Japan's Dispute over Whales: International Law Dimensions

Students who undertake the Global Leadership Certificate will be invited to attend other GLP events including the Consular Series and Cultural Series as well as Global Leadership Symposia.

What will I get?

Students who successfully complete five colloquia and attend a GLP approved keynote event will receive a certificate, reference letter and a GLP transcript detailing each of the activities attended.

Become a global leader

mq.edu.au/glp

glp@mq.edu.au

Phone: +61 2 9850 4333

GLP students at the Global Leadership Symposium in Canberra.