GVSU is committed to assisting all members of the university community in providing for their own safety and security. The Annual Security and Fire Report is available on the Grand Valley Police Department website at www.gvsu.edu/gvpd/. If you would like to receive a hard copy of the Annual Security and Fire Report, you can stop by the Service Building or you can request that a copy be mailed to you by calling (616) 331-3255. The website and booklet contain information regarding campus security and personal safety including topics such as: crime prevention, fire safety, university police law enforcement authority, crime reporting policies, disciplinary procedures, and other matters of importance related to security and safety on campus. They also contain information about crime statistics for the three previous calendar years concerning reported crimes that occurred on campus; in certain off-campus buildings or property owned or controlled by GVSU; and on public property within, or immediately adjacent to and accessible from the campus. This information is required by law and is provided by the Grand Valley Police Department.

Grand Valley State University is an affirmative action, equal opportunity institution. It encourages diversity and provides equal opportunity in education, employment, all of its programs, and the use of its facilities. It is committed to protecting the constitutional and statutory civil rights of persons connected with the university. 8/13
