MESSAGE FROM THE CAPTAIN

SEIDMAN
MENTORSHIP
PROGRAM

Ahoy! I'm Gerry, the captain of your MentorShip. I'm here to help navigate your crew members through the journey of mentorship. Excited to have you aboard!

Gerry Cooke

Captain of the MentorShip

Business Mentors are professionals that meet with Peer Mentors.

Peer Mentors are upper level students. They mentor Mentees and receive mentorship from Business Mentors.

Mentees are first-year students paired with Peer Mentors that are upper level students (e.g., junior and senior status).

Crew Member Positions

- Pro Mentors
- Peer Mentors
- Peer Mentees

TERMS & CONDITIONS

MENTORSHIP

Mentees + Peer Mentors

- Navigate the university
- Access resources
- Identify interests and possible career paths

Peer Mentors + Business Mentors

- Explore and identify careers
- Help establish work-life balance
- Provide a sounding board for life's questions

COMMITMENT

- Connect with your mentor or mentee biweekly or monthly.
- Spend on average one-hour per month on the program.
- Options to communicate via text, phone, video, or in-person.

BENEFITS

- Thoughtful mentor and mentee pairing
- Support provided by the Seidman College of Business Mentorship office
- Invitations to the Seidman College of Business Mentorship networking and community events
- Satisfaction of giving back to Grand Valley State University and making a difference in a student's life

We are voluntarily entering into a mentoring partnership from which we both expect to benefit. We understand that the mentor is a volunteer who wants to help the mentee become and stay successful in school and in life. This mentor will act as an advisor, personal coach, and role model.

We want this to be a rich and rewarding experience with most of our committed time spent together in professional development activities. To this end, we have mutually agreed upon the following conditions of our relationship as outlined:

Confidentiality

Any sensitive information shared or issues identified within the partnership are to be held confidential and in confidence. Issues that are off-limits in this partnership includes:
