Virtual, self-guided workshops from GVSU Counseling Center offer resources for students

To help Grand Valley students with challenges that come from a new academic year and the ongoing pandemic, Grand Valley's University Counseling Center has developed a series of virtual workshops.

The self-guided Healthy Lakers Virtual Workshops share information and resources on topics such as anxiety, depression, nutrition, adjustment to COVID-19, stress management and grief.

Computer Lab Access on the GVSU IT website

Need access to technology? Head to the GVSU Information Technology website. There you will be able to access Macintosh & Windows Virtual labs and find campus lab hours.

The screenshot shows the GVSU Information Technology website. At the top, there is a blue header with the GVSU logo and the text "GRAND VALLEY STATE UNIVERSITY". To the right of the header is a search bar with the text "SEARCH PEOPLE & PAGES". Below the header is the "Information Technology" section, which includes a navigation menu with links for "Information Technology", "Team", "Mission", "Policies and Procedures", and "A-Z List". The main content area is titled "Computer Lab Access" and features three blue buttons: "Macintosh Virtual Lab", "Windows Virtual Lab", and "On Campus Lab Hours". Below the "Macintosh Virtual Lab" button are two links: "Macintosh Virtual Lab Instructions for windows" and "Macintosh Virtual Lab Instructions for Mac's". Below the "Windows Virtual Lab" button is a link: "Windows Virtual Lab Instructions".
