

Mask up, Lakers!

The presence of the Covid Omicron variant requires that the university makes adjustments to support safe operations. GVSU has stated that we have moved to Alert Level 3.

GVSU requires face coverings, covering the nose and mouth, in all indoor spaces, except when eating or drinking. To read more about GVSU's face covering policy, click here.

Your input is valued!

From time to time, Seidman leadership is in need of student input to inform operational and/or strategic decisions. These could involve input on a strategic priority or operational decisions like changes to the Seidman Blackboard template, the standard syllabi, or advertising messages. To facilitate this, we would like to identify a group of Seidman students – undergraduate and graduate – to serve on a panel. You will only be contacted if we are in need of your input which could come in the form of a short survey, a phone call or possibly a focus group.

We're looking for volunteers to serve in this way during the Winter '22 semester. If you are interested, please complete this short form:

We look forward to hearing from you by January 24th. Any questions about the panel can be directed to Karen Ruedinger, Assistant Dean at ruedingk@gvsu.edu or by calling 616-331-7433.
