Breakout groups
To facilitate small group collaboration, you can create breakout groups that are separate from the main room and assign participants to them.

Breakout groups requires you use version 52 of the Chrome™ browser.

Breakout groups have their own private audio, video, whiteboard, application sharing, and chat. Any collaboration that takes place in a group is independent of the Main room (and other groups).

Start breakout groups

You can choose to have Collaborate create and randomly assign breakout groups for you. Or you can create the groups yourself.

1. Open the Share Content panel from the Collaborate panel.
2. Select Breakout Groups.
3. Assign groups. Select ‘Randomly’ assign or ‘Custom’ assignment.
   - Randomly assign: Collaborate creates groups and randomly assigns participants for you.

     Randomly assign is only available when there are four or more people are in the room.

     - If you want to be in a group, select Include moderators in group assignment.
     - You can change how many participants are in each group. Select the number of groups from the Number of Groups menu.
     - If you don’t like how the participants are grouped, select Reassign participants.
   - Custom assignment: Create your own groups.
     - Assign participants to a group. You can select the participant’s options menu and select the group. Or you can select Add under the group name and select participants to add them. You can also select the participant and drag them to the right group.
     - Select ‘Create’ a new group to add more groups.
4. Optionally, select Allow participants to switch groups, if you want participants to be able to move to another group on their own.
5. Select Start.

Monitor groups
After breakout groups are started you can move between groups to monitor them. If you assigned yourself to a group, you see and hear what others in the group are doing. This includes any shared content, audio, video, and chat.

If you want to see how the other groups are doing, you need to join those groups. From the Participants panel, select join group.

Group chats are private to the group. The ‘Everyone’ chat room is open to everyone, no matter what group you are in. As a moderator you also have a moderator only chat room.
Move participants to another group

Moderators can move themselves between groups by selecting Join Group in the participant's panel. You can also move other participants.

1. Open the participant's options menu from the Participants panel.
2. Select Move to another group. This opens the Breakout groups panel.
3. Move the participant to another group. There are three ways you can do this.
   - Select the participant's options menu and select the group.
   - Select Add under the group name and select participants to add them.
   - Select the participant and drag them to the right group.
4. Select Update.

Can I remove someone from a session?

Yes. You can choose to move them back to the main room or to another group. Or you can choose to remove them completely from a session. Open the participant's options menu from the Participants panel. Select Remove from session.

End breakout groups

When you want to stop breakout groups and bring everybody back to the main room, select End breakout groups. You can find this at the top of the Participants panel or beside Breakout groups in the Share Content panel.

After you select End breakout groups, all participants are moved back to the main room.

After the groups have ended, nothing shared in a group is available in the main room. Give your participants a few minutes warning that you are ending the breakout groups. Give them time to take a screen capture, or record in some other way, what they were working on before ending the groups.
