

KAUFMAN INTERFAITH INSTITUTE

GRAND VALLEY STATE UNIVERSITY®

Guidelines for use of the Interfaith Reflection Rooms

- All faculty, staff, and students are welcome to use these spaces while on campus.
- Each room is designated for silent reflection, prayer, meditation, etc. only.
 - If your gathering cannot be conducted in silence, please contact Event Services at events@gvsu.edu to reserve another room.
 - Similarly, we ask that you please respect the purpose of this space and refrain from working on homework here. There are a number of other quiet spaces for study on campus, like in the Mary Idema Pew Library.
- If you are able, please remove your shoes before entering the room. Many practitioners spend time on the floor, and we would like to keep them as clean as possible.
- Be cognizant and respectful of the personal space of others.
- Real candles, burning oils, incense, or other flammable items are not permitted.
- The posting or leaving of materials of any kind is not permitted. All materials left by anyone other than the Kaufman Interfaith Institute will be removed and disposed of.
- An assortment of religious/spiritual texts can be found in each room. Please return these texts to the shelf when you are finished.
 - If you would like to inquire about including additional materials, please contact the Kaufman Interfaith Institute at interfaith@gvsu.edu.

Concerns?

- If you have any general concerns about this space, please let us know at interfaith@gvsu.edu.
- If you feel that your safety is being threatened, contact Public Safety at (616) 331-3255 or call 911.
