

February 2025

From CECI Advising

Message from Melanie

February! The month of holidays, snow days, long days, and short weeks.

There are many things in February we can be joyful about -- Black History Month, Valentine's Day, hot chocolate, winter magic. But right now might feel heavy for some of you (myself included). Whether it's the weather, the gray sky, the cultural climate, your midterms -- some days can feel more difficult than we are prepared to handle.

We are here for you! Think of you Academic Advising office as a hub for relief -- what can we do to help ease the weight of this time? Please reach out and let us help!

Deadlines and Important Dates

Make note of these or add them to your calendar --
