

Class of 2029 Tuition, Fees, and Cost of Enrollment

| Class of 2029                                                                                     | Didactic (16 months)                                         | Clinical (12 months)                                         | Notes                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| GVSU Application Fee                                                                              | $30                                                         | N/A                                                          | No fee if previously applied to GVSU                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Tuition (resident and non-resident is same)                                                       | $62,980 (67 credits)                                        | $37,600 (40 credits)                                        | Based on tuition rates of $940/credit hour. Subject to change by GVSU Board of Trustees.                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Clinical Rotation Fee                                                                             | N/A                                                          | $5,500                                                      | Assessed as a course fee for PAS 610, 620, 630.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Program and Institution Subtotals*See below for tuition and fee breakdown per semester | Program and Institution Subtotals:$63,010 | Program and Institution Subtotals:$43,100 | Program and Institution Subtotals: $106,110                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Housing/Transportation/Food                                                                       | $25,092                                                     | $17,928-$24,928                                            | Clinical year travel can vary depending on site placement.These estimates are based on current federal government data used to determine financial aid eligibility, taking into account location and cost of living. Actual expenses may vary by individual circumstances. |
| Medical Equipment/Books/BLS/ACLS                                                                  | $1,300                                                      | $500                                                        | Dependent upon the student's purchase, various options are available at lower costs.                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Health Compliance                                                                                 | $485                                                        | $205                                                        | Health compliance costs vary by student. All students must establish a health compliance account and complete a background check, fingerprinting, drug screen, and healthcare visit to document ability to meet technical standards. Additional                                    |

|                                           |                 |                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|-------------------------------------------|-----------------|--------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                           |                 |                          | requirements include annual influenza immunizations and TB testing; students who have not previously received the required immunizations (Hepatitis A, Hepatitis B, COVID, Tdap, MMR, Varicella) may also need to obtain them. See the GVSU Health Compliance site for where to obtain services. Students are required to update TB testing and influenza immunizations. Depending on clinical site placement, students may be required to repeat criminal background checks and drug screenings. |
| Estimated TOTAL COST OF ENROLLMENT | $89,887 | $61,733-$68,733 | Total: $151,620-$158,620                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |

Class of 2029 Tuition Breakdown by Semester

**Tuition and Clinical Rotation Fees are subject to change.*

| Didactic Phase | Credits Per Semester | Total Semester Tuition and Fees                          |
|-----------------------|-----------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------|
| Semester One          | 15 credits                  | $14,100                                                        |
| Semester Two          | 18 credits                  | $16,920                                                        |
| Semester Three        | 18 credits                  | $16,920                                                        |
| Semester Four         | 16 credits                  | $15,040                                                        |
| Clinical Phase | Credits Per Semester | Total Semester Tuition and Fees                          |
| Semester Five         | 13 credits                  | $14,053 (includes a clinical rotation fee of $1,833/semester) |
| Semester Six          | 13 credits                  | $14,053 (includes a clinical rotation fee of $1,833/semester) |
| Semester Seven        | 14 credits                  | $14,993 (includes a clinical rotation fee of $1,833/semester) |