ANNOUNCEMENTS – AUGUST 31, 2026

CHALK ART SYMPOSIUM

The Fifth Annual Chalk Art Symposium turns the Northeast Plaza of the Mary Idema Pew Library (near the Cook Carillon Clock Tower) into an open-air gallery of student and faculty research, told entirely in chalk. No poster board, no podium, no slides - just a question worth drawing out, a box of chalk, and a campus full of passersby. GVSU alumna and professional chalk artist Emily Miller ('14, '20) returns again this year to work alongside participants.

- Thursday, September 17, 2026, chalk artists at work 4:00-6:30 p.m.
- The Northeast Plaza of the Mary Idema Pew Library (rain location: the Kirkhof Center Lobby)
- Open to any student or faculty member actively engaged in research, in or out of the classroom
- Registration to participate as an artist closes Friday, September 11, 2026, at 11:59 p.m. No registration is needed to simply come watch.
