3:00 pm – 4:00 pm
Holton Hooker Multipurpose Room

The Office of Undergraduate Research and Scholarship (OURS), a program within the Center for Student Research and Scholarly Engagement (CSRSE), provides support for all undergraduates interested in pursuing research and creative practice within their discipline.

This faculty and student-led session will introduce students to undergraduate research at GVSU. We will discuss what undergraduate research is (and isn't), what you can expect from a variety of research experiences, as well as how to find a research opportunity and a mentor. This session will explore OURS summer programs, including requirements, application materials, and deadlines. The session is open to all students interested in research and creative scholarship.
