CSO Capacity Analysis

Westfield Prep has established itself as a top notch high school in just two years by offering strong student support and innovative programs. The school has an active school leader who engages with students, teachers and families on a regular basis. The school also find ways to meet student needs as they arise and offers a plethora of acitivities to engage students and keep them on a positive path. A significant number of students participate in the early-middle college program. The management organization provides strong support and invest heavily in programming. The CSO has confidence in the school's ability to continue to grow and have strong college outcomes.

Summary

Westfield Prep is in its second year of operation. The school has successfully added grade 11 this year and has strong enrollment in a highly competative market.
