CSO Capacity Analysis

Arbor Academy has a robust Learning Management System in place to select educational objectives and track and report student progress. The school has demonstrated strong performance in reading on the NWEA MAP GROWTH, in both achievement and growth. The CSO believes that this is a result of several factors, including low student-to-teacher ratios that allow for strong relationships. The CSO observed that school staff has strong relationships with students. Strong leadership, teachers' relations with parents and new Behavior Interventionist have resulted in half the number of students being sent home due to behavior issues. The totality of evidence reviewed provides the CSO with confidence in the strength of the school's internal capacity to continue to effectively deliver its academic program.
