STU 11.0

Date of Last Update:

January 04, 2021

Approved By:

- President

Responsible Office:

Office of Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution

POLICY STATEMENT

11.1 Initiating Classroom Removal

In the event an instructor believes a student is engaging in disruptive conduct during a class, the faculty member may ask the student to leave the class immediately. If the student refuses to leave, the faculty member should call the Department of Public Safety promptly to request assistance. The faculty member should notify OSSCR immediately upon the conclusion of the class session.

11.2 Procedures

Upon notification by the instructor, a CRF will work with the instructor to assess the level of severity of the conduct. After consultation with the CRF, the faculty member may choose to meet with the student to convey expectations regarding future classroom conduct. If the faculty member chooses this option, the meeting with the student should be conducted before the next session of the class. This meeting with the student may be done together with the CRF.

If the faculty member believes the disruptive conduct warrants removing the student from the class for the balance of the semester, the faculty member will submit a written summary of the circumstances to OSSCR to initiate the expedited conduct procedures outlined in Article 9 Interim Measures of the Statement on Student Rights and Responsibilities.
